Cups, Crests Presented To Young Hockeyists

Cups and crests were presented to individual champions and winning teams of the Legion-sponsored Little NHL hockey leagues, when players were entertained at a banquet June 5th in the Legion auditorium.

Leslie Clark was chairman for the evening, and speakers included Mayor Jack Armstrong, Rev. Alex Calder and Rev. Kenneth Richardson. Appreciation was expressed to the Legion branch for their wonderful work with young people. The hockey series was carried on under direction of chairman Frank Connelly and vice-chairman Bud James. Other executive members included Herb Arnold, secretary-treasurer, Roland Haines, Jack Presswood, and Gordon James, referee-in-chief. A large number of coaches and managers assisted in operating the hockey league.

Crests were presented at the banquet to Jack Gadgion's Kitchener team, winners of the Junior A; to Herb Arnold's Maple Leafs, NHL champs; and to Jim Sargent's Hershey Bears, American league winners.

Individual trophies, some donated by individuals and others by the Legion branch were awarded as follows:

NHL — High scorer, Kent Riddall; most valuable player, Murray Sisler (Ivan Crabtree trophy); Vezina trophy, Wayne Everson.

American League — High scorer — Tim Haines; most valuable player, Wayne Presswood (Bud James trophy); Vezina trophy, Ernie Pearce.

Junior A — High scorer, Bob Kemshead (Dick Licata trophy) — most valuable player, Jack Gulligon (Harold McClure trophy); Vezina trophy, Wayne Riddall.

Tim Haines received the Dick Riddall trophy as the most valuable player in the league. Ronny Lane was named Rookie of the Year and received the Roland Haines trophy.

BOOK REVIEW

by Weyms
The Comet Riddle
by Timothy Hewat and W. A. Waterton

This is "A Who Done It" with a difference. In this instance the killer is not a homicidal maniac but something far more deadly, accounting for the lives of scores of men, women and children. Impartially told when it would be simple to lay the blame, this is the fascinating story of the ill-fated Comet jet airliner. The last fatal crash of a Comet into 500 feet of water off the coast of Elba began one of the greatest feats of detection in the history of aviation. It was probably the costliest as well, the bill totalling about $5,500,000.

In A Canadian Attic
by Gerald Stevens (135)

At last a book written for collectors of Canadiana. The author deals with books, furniture, firearms, Indian artifacts and a dozen other collector's items. This is your opportunity to check that piece of copper lustre you inherited from grandma. It may be worth $50.00.

Older Books

There are not too many people who would dispute W. Somerset Maugham as the patriarch of novelists today. I would pick "The Razor's Edge," "The Moon and Sixpence," and "Of Human Bondage" as being my favourites from his long list of novels. His short stories are, of course all masterpieces. If you are not already acquainted then you have missed something.

FLOWER TALK, PICNIC SUPPER FOR IODE

The June 11th meeting of Countess of Stratmore Chapter, IODE, was preceded by a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Percy Saxe. Ruth Evans presided and forty members attended.

After the meeting Sandy Best showed pictures of lilies and he spoke on Lands and People. Mr. Best, a lecturer at the University of Toronto is doing graduate work on lily culture and is a recognized authority in this field.

Members are now completing an annual fund canvass for the Institute for the Blind, it was reported. A report was also given on the health clinic in which the chapter assists the county health unit. $5.00 was voted for new toys.

A flag is being donated to the 2nd Company, Girl Guides. An evening is being planned for New Canadians in the early fall. Last month a bale of used clothing was sent to the adopted northern school.

Miss Eva Ellison from Ramsey, Isle of Man, was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Bruce Hill, 19 King Street East was welcomed as a new member. Members with knitting completed were asked to return it.

Hostesses who assisted Mrs. Saxe were Mrs. Sam Mackenzie, Mrs. Ed Hall, Mrs. Albert Kershaw and Mrs. Robert Reichardt.

SILVER-WOOD

W.I. Welcomes Back Secretary Mrs. Batkin

In spite of a 95 degree temperature, one of the Institute's most pleasant meetings was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Lindsay, on Thursday. Eighteen members and several guests being present. Mrs. Ouke Mulder rejoined the branch after her absence in England and the ladies also welcomed Mrs. George Sivill to the community and greeted again Miss Marjorie Shaw, a former teacher at the Stone School.

Roll Call "the first church I attended and something about it" brought out some amusing anecdotes. Special reports were given by Mrs. Corbett on the District Annual meeting, and by Mrs. George Henderson, who attended the officers conference in Guelph. It was decided to recognize the Gold and Bronze Medal winners at the music festival with a book presentation, and Mrs. Miller reported two full layettes ready for the Children's Aid. Fifty dollars was voted for the Kirkpatrick Fund, and Mrs. Norton reported on the fair committee meeting. It was decided to have an assistant secretary treasurer, and Mrs. Bert Corbett agreed to take the post after a motion to that effect. Mrs. Batkin was welcomed back after an absence of six months, due to illness, and to show our appreciation of her faithful and efficient work as secretary-treasurer since our beginning in 1951 a gift was presented to her by Mrs. Corbett.

Mrs. Burt, convener of Historical Research and Current Events, took over the meeting, and read a chapter on Mrs. Clarke's "Pages of the Past". Current Events were given by Mrs. Bert Corbett, and a reading by Mrs. K. C. Lindsay, apropos of Father's Day, was much appreciated. An old-fashioned spelling bee was then held, but whether due to the heat, the rattle of tea cups in the kitchen or to the fact that we just can't spell, it was soon over. A social half hour followed the singing of the National Anthem, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Appleyard assisting the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Marchington are spending the week at Port Elgin with Mr. and Mrs. Charles King of Detroit.

GUIDES ON PARADE

PARADING TO THE PARK on Victoria Day to take part in the hospital campaign launching, is this proud troop of girl guides. A colour party marches at the head of the group, newly formed in Georgetown this year and already grown to such proportions that a second company has been formed.
