YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF AND FAMILY TO ATTEND THIS AFFAIR.

LEGION NOTES

by L. M. C.

Well, it's here, the picnic, that is. This Sunday will see the annual trek to Erin's Stanley Park for a real day of it. Buses have been arranged for and it is expected that a bumper crowd will attend. There will be loads of free tickets for refreshments for the kiddies, as well as four ponies to keep them busy. Races for everyone, prizes for all. All you have to do is bring your basket lunch, there have been arrangement-made for tea, coffee, and chocolate milk, and of course, ice cream.

Frank Connelly has arranged a ball game, a mixed one this year, with members and their wives taking part. This in itself should be really worth seeing, so try and be there early and stay late. Also besides the ball game, horseshoe and dart tournaments have been arranged and will as usual be well filled with entrants.

Buses will leave various spots in town, as well as the Glen from approximately 12.40 and from the Legion Hall at 12.45. So there's plenty of room for everyone.

This Thursday night is your regular monthly meeting, and it would be a nice gesture, to see a really large crowd out for the last meeting of the year. There is quite a lot of business to come up, and it is only fair that each and every member should be present to have his or her say. The meetings are always short and interesting, so why not try and make it this one? Refreshments are always served immediately following the meeting.

Well, we haven't had so much comment about a Legion competition to discover the biggest girl member of the Branch (that's a nice way of putting it.) We think that we have some real competitors in the class, and could really have quite a competition some night at a stag after a meeting. The four we mention had various things to say about it. Joe Martin says he can win in a breeze, Rocco thinks he can too. . . Dobbie and Patter son's comments (unprintable.) Personally we would be quite willing to donate a cup for the cause, providing we could find enough competitors to make it interesting.

The weather has been so unfavorable the last while on the week-ends, we are almost certain of having good weather for Sunday's picnic (we hope, we hope.) It would be nice to have a perfect day and see a really big turnout for the picnic. Don't forget the place — Stanley Park, this Sunday afternoon.

POT LUCK SUPPER, THEN REBEKAH'S SUMMER RECESS

Tuesday evening, June 19th, the Verdun Rebekahs held their final meeting of the season. The members met for a pot luck dinner at seven o'clock in the banquet room. Everyone brought their special dish and the tables groaned, incidentally the members did not when they were finished.

After the meeting closed the members had a hilarious hour of games before returning to the banquet room for a cup of tea before going home. The noble grand expressed the wish that everyone would have a very happy summer.

GLEN WILLIAMS Urges P.S. Graduates Continue Education

Glen Williams Home and School association held a banquet Friday in the Sunday School room of the United Church for the graduating class.

"Look to the learning and the learning will look after itself" said Sam Penrice, speaking to the graduating class of Glen Williams public school.

Mr. Penrice was speaker at a graduation dinner tendered by the Home and School association Friday in the United Church Sunday School room. Introduced by Marlene Kemshead, he spoke to pupils of opportunities which present themselves in later years to people with the necessary schooling and encouraged the young people to take every opportunity of continuing their education. He was thanked for his talk by Bob Bingham.

Rev. W. Edgar Gill said Grace and June McGowan toasted the Queen and introduced the head table. Ms. C. G. Bishop, president of the Home and School, toasted the graduates, with Carol Barth replying. Walter Dixon proposed a toast to the school, with Mrs. W. Beaumont of the staff responding.

A picture which will be hung in the school was presented from the graduates by Robert Matthews. Wayne Bingham expressed thanks to the Home and School for their interest taken in the school and for the banquet.

After dinner, the program continued in the church with a singing led by the music teacher, Mrs. Snyder, followed by Mr. Penrice's talk. Each girl graduate was given a rosebud corsage.
