Was Married When Husband Banker Here

Mrs. George C. Lawrence was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown on Thursday following a private funeral service at the Harold C. McClure funeral home here. She died at the Toronto Wellesley Hospital on June 19th after a short illness.

Violet Isobel Bessey before her marriage, she was the daughter of the late Ezra and Isobel Mackenzie Bessey and was born when her father farmed on the 5th Line, Esquesing. She was a member of two of the district's oldest families.

Her family moved to Georgetown when she was a child and she attended public and high school here. In 1912 she married Mr. Lawrence who was manager of the Merchants' Bank, located on Main Street in what is now Richardson's Hardware. He was transferred to the Brantford branch as manager in 1916, and in 1922 left the bank to become general manager of Municipal Bankers Corporation in Toronto. They have since lived at 12 Robinwood Avenue in the city. Mr. Lawrence [illegible] prominent [illegible]

FLIES FROM ALASKA FOR SISTER'S WEDDING

Mr. [illegible] flew from Anchorage, Alaska by plane from Anchorage, Alaska to be the matron of honor at the wedding of her brother Private John Wright to Miss Jean Jane Leeder at the Church of the Precious Blood Southside on Saturday, June 16th. She expects to return to Alaska next week by plane. Guests also attended from Guelph, Georgetown, Ottawa, Chatham, Toronto, Port Hope, Newmarket, Brampton and Milton.

Mrs. [illegible] prepared on the handling of [illegible] in the scout's since 1870 that has been prepared for the Tweedsmuir History that is to be entered in the provincial competition.

Mrs. Ernie Leslie and Mrs. Bill Ostrander displayed their home talent and had samples of sewing, knitting and smocking. Mrs. Leslie Young as scout for the meeting expressed the courtesies to those taking part, all contributing to making the historical meeting a very interesting one.

An enjoyable social time followed when the members had a chance to look at the Tweedsmuir History
