LIVING IN GLEN WILLIAMS

MR. AND MRS. JOHN VANDERMEER, who were married in Acton on June 16 are living in Glen Williams. The bride, Hetty Lenstra, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lenstra, River Drive. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Clarence Vandermeer, Friesland, Holland and the late Mr. Vandermeer.

Jim Wilson, Doreen Davidson Wedding at Knox Presbyterian

In Knox Presbyterian Church on Saturday, July 7th at 3 p.m. Gladys Doreen Davidson, daughter of Charles Davidson and the late Mrs. Davidson of Brussels became the bride of James Robert Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Maple Avenue, Rev. Alex Calder officiated in the church beautifully decorated with peonies and orange blossoms. Mrs. R. T. Paul was the organist and Charlene Day was the soloist. Charlene sang the Lord's Prayer before the ceremony and because during the signing of the register.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her away in a ballerina length gown of net over taffeta with embroidered velvet flowers, her net jacket was also covered with the embroidered flowers. The finger tip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and sequins. She carried red roses and stephanotis.

The bride's attendant was Dorothy Warren of Georgetown who wore a white tulle lace over pink taffeta, her headdress was a lace coronet and she carried orange roses. Susan McAnulty of St. Mary's niece of the bride was the flower girl in pale blue nylon with net, her headdress was net with flowers and she carried a basket of baby mums, delphinium and baby roses. Cyrus Wilson, brother of the groom, was groomsman and Calvin Davidson, Waterloo, brother of the bride, and Carman Maltby were ushers.

A wedding reception was held in Knox Church Hall where the bride's eldest sister Mrs. Lorne Nic Caulty of St. Mary's received for her wearing a green figured nylon dress with panama accessories and corsage of pink roses and stephanotis. Mrs. J. B. Wilson, mother of the groom assisted wearing a navy blue gown embellished with white white accessories and corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

For their northern honeymoon the bride chose an aqua crystalite two piece dress, white accessories and blue nylon shortie coat, her corsage was red roses and stephanotis. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Georgetown on their return. The groom is employed at Provincial Paper Mills and the bride has been employed at the Alliance Paper Mills Ltd.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Davidson of Atwood was an honoured guest at the wedding. Guests also attended from Atwood, Brussels, Toronto, Guelph, Waterloo, St. Marys, Penbrooke and Georgetown.

Rain Cancels Picnic Tug-of-War Event

The employees of the Alliance Mill and their families held their annual picnic at Stanley Park, Erin on Sunday, July 8th. Everyone enjoyed the swimming and races were held for children and adults with prizes for the winners.

The event most anticipated, the tug-of-war, between the coating floor team and the finish room team, was rained out so possession of the cup is still in abeyance. This event is going to take place in the very near future.

Ken Hunter was mystery man and Tommy Norton, Glen Williams is a blanket richer for having guessed who he was.

Committee in charge of the picnic was Tom Eason, chairman, Sylvia Patterson, secretary, Pat Louth, treasurer; Charlene Day, Reno Forgrave, Basil Hadley, Fred Engleby, Roy Norton and Perc Chaplin.
