

ARCHDEKIN - GILES ORANGEVILLE WEDDING

Following a honeymoon in Ottawa and the United States, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graham Archdekin will make their home on David Street in Brampton.

Westminster United Church, Orangeville, decorated with baskets of white gladioli and baby mums formed an effective setting for the wedding, June 16, of Marion Olive Giles and Albert Graham Archdekin. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Giles, Orangeville, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Archdekin, Brampton. Rev. Ronald W. Arkwright officiated at the ceremony and Mr. Lindsey Jelly played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Gwen Little of Brampton. Miss Little sang "Because and 'O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chiffon net over taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and graceful skirt. A fingertip veil from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of American beauty and of sweetheart roses.

The maid of honour, Miss Grace Scroggie, wore a ballerina length frock of fuchsia taffeta designed with a scoop neckline and three quarter sleeves. The bridesmaids Mrs. Laverne Giles, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Marlene Archdekin, sister of the groom, wore gowns fashioned in the same shade and style as that of the maid of honour. Scalloped picture hats of matching material with trim of chiffon net and seed pearls, and pompoms of white mums completed the attendants' outfits.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Leo Archdekin and the ushers were Mr. Jack McCreath and Mr. Jack Sibbald, both of Brampton.

A reception for the guests followed at Grove Lodge, Mrs. Giles, mother of the bride, received the guests in a gown of dusty rose nylon sheer over taffeta, with white accessories and a corsage of blue mums. The groom's mother assisted in a Dior blue crepe gown with ice-pink accessories and a corsage of pink mums.

Guests were present for the wedding from Brampton, Snelgrove, Fort William, Georgetown, Dundalk, Toronto, as well as Orangeville and the surrounding district.

Dolson Gathering Draws 95 to Erin

A successful reunion of the Dolson clan was held in Stanley Park, Erin, on Saturday, June 23. Ninety-five kinsmen gathered from many points including North Tonawanda, N.Y., Galt, Guolph, Bolton, Corbett, Dundalk, Palmerston, Toronto, Brampton and Georgetown.

Following a hearty lunch, provided by Mrs. Harold Dolson and her committee, the president T. O. Dolson extended greetings to all. Two minutes' silence was observed in memory of those members of the clan who had passed away.

Mrs. Howard Dolson, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes and financial statement of the 1954 reunion. Both were approved. The following officers were elected for 1956: president Ken Davidson; 1st vice president Clure Dolson; second vice president, Dr. Wilbur Dolson.

Sports Program
Later everyone proceeded to the park for a program of sports arranged by Clure Dolson, Herb Dolson and Frank Dolson.

The following were the prize-winners: eldest lady, Mrs. T. S. Leslie; coming the greatest distance, Mrs. M. Thompson; youngest baby, Martin Dolson; youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dolson; peanut guessing contest, Gordon McClure.

Autographed Book From Marilyn Bell

An autographed copy of "Swim to Glory" the Marilyn Bell story authored by Ron McAllister is a prized possession of Joan Rundle, 9 Ewing Street.

Joan accompanied her dad, Bruce Rundle, when he was driver of a bus which took a group of members of the Lakeshore Swimming Club to Port Sydney last week-end for a swimming exhibition.

En route, the little girl was presented with a copy of the book,

Can you honestly say to yourself:
"I have enough life insurance
to look after my wife, my children,
my future?"
