YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAIN GROUPS FROM 3 CHURCHES

The Young People entertained other groups from Milton, Ashgrove and Hornby Friday night in the church and despite the wet evening there was a good attendance. Guests were conducted on a mystery tour which proved to be both chilling and thrilling. Other contests were enjoyed after which refreshments were served. All were invited to the Gibson home where dancing and television were enjoyed to close a pleasant evening.

Eileen Maltby of Belwood is enjoying a holiday with Mary Baker. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Neelon from Woodstock and Dunnville visited with them on Sunday and were welcome visitors at our church service.

Boys and girls from the three churches on the charge are enjoying the Vacation Bible School being held here this week. The July meeting of the Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Elwood Snow. Mrs. McLaughlin conducted the worship service. Items on Christian Citizenship & Christian Stewardship were read by Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Snow. A generous donation towards a bale for children was packed and is to be forwarded to an eastern port worker. Mrs. Lawr presented the topic after which all joined in a sing-song. As it was the occasion of the hostess' birthday, the lunch committee, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Cotton thoughtfully prepared a delicious birthday cake complete with candles for the social hour.

Mrs. James Hickey Once Town Resident

Mrs. Ellenora Hickey, once a resident of town who later lived in Windsor and Toronto, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, on Friday.

Widow of James Hickey, she was a sister-in-law of Miss Ann Hickey of town. Mr. and Mrs. Hickey lived in the John Hughes house on Guelph Street, later moving to Windsor. After Mr. Hickey's death she moved to Toronto where she lived at 26 Prince Rupert Drive.

She leaves two children, Mary Jo, Mrs. Charles Kirk and Robert Henry (Harry) both of Toronto.

Requiem mass was held in St. Joan of Arc's Church on Monday morning, with interment following in Mount Hope Cemetery.
