ARMSTRONG-SLATER WEDDING LONDON ANGLICAN CATHEDRAL

Club Girls Display Progress to W. I.

The Brampton west branch of the Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Hartley Cameron with the president, Mrs. James Laidlaw in the chair.

The 4-H Home-maker Club Girls were in charge. Norma Hall gave a report of the 4-H Homemakers conference at McDonald Hall, in Guelph, when she and Norma Kingdom were delegates. The theme of the conference was "you and your home."

The roll call was responded to with "My opinion of a new product I have tried."

Mrs. Harold Reed and Mrs. R. J. Stewart were the leaders of the club project "Clothes Closets up-to-date." Mrs. Reed reported that eight girls had taken part, and introduced Heather Ann Hutton, who gave an outline of details covered in the course.

She displayed a hat, stand and cover, shoe pad and utility box she had made in the class. She also stressed the importance of following the color scheme of the room.

Anne Davis contributed to the musical part of the program by singing two solo selections.

Mrs. R. J. Stewart and Mrs. James Laidlaw were leaders of the "Cereal Shelf Project." Ruth Ismond spoke for this group telling how they had learned to use cereals in the daily menu, for dinner and supper as well as breakfast. Such nourishing and attractive dishes such as apple or peach crisp, muffins and cookies were later served by the girls to illustrate.

Barbara Fraser presented Mrs. James Laidlaw with a gift in appreciation of her help as joint leader of the cereal shelf project, after which Mrs. Archie McMeekin gave current events.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Douglas McClure thanked the hostess and all taking part in the program.

Standards of pink and white gladioli with ferns, palms and candelabra decorated St. Paul's Cathedral, London, when Ellen Slater became the bride of John Herbert Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slater, of London, are parents of the bride and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Armstrong, Churchill Crescent, Georgetown. The Very Rev. R. C. Brown, Dean of Huron, officiated and wedding music was played by Mrs. Herman Wahlwend.

The bride wore a floor length gown of nylon net and imported swiss lace over satin. The lace bodice was styled with a scalloped bateau neckline and lily-point sleeves and the bouffant skirt featured a scalloped lace apron effect extending to a brief train. Her floor length illusion net veil, embroidered at the hem, was held by a matching headband trimmed with seed pearls in orange blossom motif and she carried a white bible crested with red roses and white satin streamers knotted with rosebuds.

Miss Florence Osbourne, as maid of honour, was gowned in ballerina length pale blue organza over nylon net and taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli. The bridesmaids, Miss Doreen Armstrong, Georgetown, sister of the groom, and Miss Joyce Burt, Brampton, were similarly gowned in yellow and carried peach gladioli. Patricia Armstrong, Georgetown, was flower girl wearing ballerina length pale blue nylon and carrying a basket of yellow gladioli. Elgin Armstrong, Georgetown was ring bearer.

Ronald Erwin, Malton, was the groomsmen and ushers were Graham Evans and Ronald Morrell.

Receiving guests, the bride's mother wore a pale green linen suit with pink accessories and white carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose a pale green sheath dress with white carnation corsage.

For travelling to the Thousand Islands, the bride donned a pale blue duster ensemble with corsage of pink roses. The couple will reside in Georgetown.

CHURCH PICNIC AT NEW GRAHAM HOME

The joint picnic meeting of the WMS Mission Band and Baby Band was held on Tuesday afternoon, August 14th on the second line at the new home of Kent and Hugh Graham with a large attendance of mothers and children. President Mrs. Leslie Giffen opened with the hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth" and a short devotion on God's good gift to man stressing trees. Susan Tindale gave a short reading on the apple tree, Doreen Carney the Pine Tree, Patsy Blackett the Oak tree, Hugh Graham the fig tree, Barbara Blackett the sycamore tree and Sandra Carney read a poem entitled "A big and a little tree." Mrs. T. Blackett told the children of a little Japanese girl, Yasuko who had an ambition to be a story girl and how she realized that ambition. Nancy Hunter and Karen Bridgen took up the offering. Mrs. Arthur Ruddell thanked the hostess Mrs. Gerald Graham and her mother Mrs. Johnson, for having the meeting, after which everyone went outside where Mrs. John McNabb and Mrs. Murray Bridgen held races for the children, and Mrs. T. Blackett and Mrs. T. Giffen had contests and quiet games for the ladies. A beautiful lunch on the lovely lawn ended a very pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogue Barnes and family had a very enjoyable motor trip to Bay City, Michigan, recently, and on the way home stopped to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cleave Wilson at Essex.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, Gloria and Brian of Willowdale were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruddell and Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carney and family and Elwood Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tindale and family had a delightful picnic on Sunday at Waterfall Park near Linchouse.

Miss Sandra Carney is spending this week with relatives in Milton. The Young People will have charge of the service on Sunday morning and it will commence at eleven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick and Mrs. George Kennedy of Milton have returned from a two weeks visit with Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Fisher at Bourlamaque, Que. This past week-end Mrs. Walter Thompson of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick.
