CLUB MIDTOWN

Well, except for two, C/M has the same old faces in new places in the executive this week, following the combination nomination and election at the dance last Friday night. Three officers of the old executive retired: namely, Donna Bennett, Carole Seddon and yours truly, all for various reasons. Donna has left us to go in training for a nurse in Guelph; Carole is entering fifth form in high school next week and expects to devote her spare time to studies; and without those two, your truly would be exposed as the dunderhead he is, so he resigned quietly while it was still possible to do so.

Kerry Jepson, a faithful and helpful member in the past is our new president. We hope he is given the cooperation and encouragement that we received and that he derives as much pleasure from his position as we did. The other vacancies were filled by other executive members... Barbara Alcott was promoted to the committee to the vice presidency, and Gail McGilvray will play a double role as secretary-treasurer. Carole and myself have agreed to stay on, in an advisory capacity, and Walter Wilson, a faithful attendee, (especially Hard Times Danes) has joined the committee as a handyman. A small gift of jewellery was presented to Donna as a token of appreciation for all that she has done for Club Midtown during the past year. We shall miss her cheerful presence and helping hand at the meetings and dances. There will be a dance this Friday, and if the crowd is as large as last week's, they will likely become a weekly affair once more. That's it for now; see you at C/M.

Dies While Visiting Sister in the Glen

While visiting at the home of his sister in Glen Williams, Robert Sanderson, 46, of Toronto died on Sunday morning, August 19th. Ill for the past year and a half, he had come to the Glen to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Felker on the Wednesday preceding his death. A native of Listowel, Mr. Sanderson had been employed in the city with Ontario Hydro. He leaves his mother, Mrs. Henry Sanderson, of Toronto, and his sister, Mrs. Norman Felker. The funeral service and burial was held in Listowel.

STEWARTTOWN

INSTITUTE MEETING NEXT WEEK AT MRS. ARMSTRONG'S Esquimes Women's Institute. September meeting has been advanced to the first Wednesday, September 5th at Mrs. Armstrong's home. Topic: education; roll call, a small article for the retarded children at the home at Milton. Anything useful or interesting for a retarded child.

Happy birthday to Gail Smith for Sunday, Sept. 2nd. Also to Paul Hodge, Wednesday, Sept. 5th, happy birthday. Many of the Stewarttown people are visiting the Toronto Exhibition these days. Next Monday will be Labour Day and the next day will be back to school. Mrs. Walter Thompson of Toronto was visiting in the village one day last week. Sunday, September 9, St. John's Sunday School will reopen. Mrs. P. Hill (Mrs. Sanford's sister) and Mr. Hill are leaving this week for their home in Birmingham, England. They have been in Canada three and a half months. Mrs. J. H. Smith is visiting with her sisters in Toronto.

Members of Georgetown Fire Department, their wives and families held a successful picnic at Norval on Sunday afternoon. Sports and swimming filled in the afternoon followed by a delightful picnic lunch. Six Milton firemen and two Georgetown men stood by in case of fire while the brigade picnicked.
