ASHGROVE

Young People Conduct Sunday Church Service

The Young People conducted a very fine service in the church on Sunday morning. President Bill Wilson presided and opened with a hymn and read the fourteenth chapter of St. John, responsive reading of the psalm by Norman Bird and prayer by Margaret Bird. The choir sang "I Can Never Count all my Blessings", accompanied by Jean Bird at the organ. Mrs. W. E. Gill, wife of the minister of Normal United Church, spoke from the verse "Christ Dwells Within You" and left some splendid thoughts with her listeners and assured us that once we've given our life to Him, He's abundantly able to do all we ask and think, we must pray to him, leave it to him and he will always have something to give.

The August meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening, August 21st at the home of Mrs. John Ruddell. President Mrs. W. Bird opened with the Ode and Creed. Roll Call "What I would like to be if I could" brought many amusing answers, mostly the wish to be size 14 again. During the business discussion, Mrs. George Nurse and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell were appointed to attend the area meeting in Sept. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson was named as assistant club leader for the next project. As this was the annual girl's meeting Evelyn Bird, was in charge of the program and called on Carol Hunter for the motto "The Best part of beauty is that which a picture cannot express. Muriel Davison gave a reading from the book "A man called Peter." Catherine Hunter and Margaret Austin each favoured with guitar solos. Jean and Evelyn Bird presented the demonstration given at achievement day, entitled, "Around the clock with cereals." The girls discussed and exhibited wheat and oats, corn and rice in several forms and showed many attractive ways in which they could be served for dinner and supper as well as breakfast. Lunch served by the girls brought a very interesting meeting to a close.

Its exhibition time again, the nights are noticeably closing down quicker and fall is here already, did we have any summer at all? Marilyn Wilson spent a few days in Toronto last week. This past weekend Marilyn had as her guests, Sylvia and Jane Siderus from Snelgrove.
