FRANCES PRIES WEDS AIRMAN IN WYOMING

Frances Doretta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egmont Pries, 12 Victoria Crescent, became the bride of T. Sgt. John H. Sandfort, American Air Corps Service, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sandfort, Pattonville, Missouri, in a double ring ceremony, on Friday, August 31st. The evening wedding was held in the Lutheran Church in Laramie, Wyoming. The minister was Rev. H. F. Werling.

For her marriage the bride chose a street-length dress of egg-shell brocade, with shoes to match. Her hat was a pink feathered cloche, and she wore a wrist corsage of pink gladioli. The groom's sister, Judith Sandfort, was maid of honour, wearing a deep turquoise gown, black shoes and hat, and corsage of pink roses. Wayne Pries, brother of the bride, was groomsmen.

Following the wedding, a small reception was held at the apartment at 519½ Gibbon, in Laramie, where the bride and groom will reside. Mrs. Pries received the guests wearing a beige suit with brown accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Sandfort, assisted her, in a navy dress, matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

The bride and groom motored to Denver, Colorado, for their wedding trip.

An honored guest at the wedding was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Gluck, from St. Louis, Missouri. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pries, her brother Wayne, and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, drove together from Georgetown for the wedding. They returned from their 3500 mile motor trip by way of Sault Ste. Marie.

Prior to her departure for Florida over a year ago, the bride was a member of the office staff at Smith and Stone Ltd. The groom is a member of the A.A.C.S., instructing at the University of Wyoming in Laramie.

CHELLENHAM COUPLE ARE FORTY YEARS MARRIED
Last Wednesday, on the occasion of their fortieth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Taylor, Cheltenham, were "at home" to over 150 friends and neighbours.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Roy Lyons. After signing the guest book which was in charge of two nieces, Misses Phyllis Haines and Claire Cowling, and offering their congratulations and good wishes to the host and hostess, they were taken to the dining room by Mrs. J. J. Campbell.

At the table which was centred with an anniversary cake, tea was poured by Mrs. George Scott, Barrie, Mrs. John Dolson, Brampton, Mrs. Charles Nunn and Mrs. David McDonald, Inglewood and Mrs. Fred Haines, Munco. Refreshments were served by twelve nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Many messages of congratulations were received from friends who were unable to be present, including telegrams from Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKeechie of Cobourg and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fraser of Welland.

Miss Muriel Haines, Mrs. Ross Miller, Mrs. Norman House and Mrs. George Frazer assisted with arrangements throughout the evening.

FATHER WAS BARBER FOR LORNE SCOTS
James Ewing, 24, one of two Oakville men drowned near Parry Sound, Saturday, was the son of a man well-known to many Georgetowners.

His father, James, Sr. was barber with the Lorne Scots Regiment overseas.

The young man, who worked at the P.A. oil refinery at Clarkson, was thrown from a motor boat and disappeared in the darkness as friends ran for help.

PLAY GOLF AT GAIT
On Thursday, September 6, nine lady members of the North Halton Golf and Country Club attended the annual field day at Gait. Those bringing home prizes were Mrs. Norman Marchmont and Mrs. Stewart Young.

FLOWERS, TRAVELTALK ENTERTAIN INSTITUTE

A talk on flowers and an illustrated trip to the west coast entertained ladies of Georgetown Women's Institute at their meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Seward Wilson, 1 Guelph Street.

Sandy Best, whose work in lily research has made him an American authority, explained details on his work, illustrating his talk with slides. Miss Mary Reid told about her trip to the west coast, also illustrating it with picture slides.

The president, Mrs. V. Rawson was appointed to attend the area convention in Guelph, September 25-26. Arrangements were made for exhibits at Georgetown and Milton fall fairs, and Mrs. Seward Wilson was put in charge of these.

Members answered roll call with "Marks of a Good Citizen". The motto "Good Form in Public Places" was given by Mrs. Clarence Hayes.

Mrs. W. T. Sinclair expressed thanks of the ladies to those taking part in the program.
