Pipe Band Participates In Detroit Band Tattoo

The Georgetown Girls Pipe Band were in Detroit on Saturday as part of a band tattoo and Highland Games presented by the St. Andrew's Society of Detroit.

The girls left by train Friday evening, and arrived in the motor capital around midnight. On Saturday morning they joined twenty three other bands, brass, bugle and pipe, in the University of Toronto stadium for the tattoo, and later a parade in the downtown section of the city.

In the stadium seven hundred pipers and drummers gathered to fill the air with the stirring strains of Scottish marches and take part in the Highland games and band competitions. The Georgetown girls did not compete.

Of the twenty three bands at the meet, nineteen were from Canada. The four American bands in attendance were all pipe bands, one each from Flint and Ridgeway and two from the host city.

A Highland ball Saturday night wound up the meet, the largest ever staged in Detroit. Due to a very erratic schedule the girls had little time take in the points of interest of the metropolis and had to confine their tour of the town to the parade route. Traveling with the girls as chaperones were Mrs. Jack Gunning and Mrs. Scotty Patterson.

The majority of the band returned home Sunday night while others arrive daily Monday morning. Only two members, Mrs. Harold Rasmussen and Carol Benham, were unable to make the trip.
