JANICE BRADLEY, RON DIXON MARRIED IN ST. GEORGE'S

St. George's Anglican Church decorated with pink and white gladioli and mums was the setting for the marriage of Janice Elaine Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bradley, 23 Durham Street, to Ronald Victor Frederick Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Dixon of R. R. 1, Norval.

Rev. Kenneth Richardson officiated at the double ring ceremony on Saturday, September 15th at 2 p.m. Mrs. W. F. Bradley was at the organ and Miss Glenna Doherty was the soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was gowned in an imported full length mist white Chantilly type lace gown with knife-pleated tulle tiers. It was fashioned with a lace bodice with a portrait neckline offset with lace roses re-embroidered in sequins.

The long lace sleeves formed lily-points over the hands. Her finger tip veil was caught into a crown, encrusted with jewels. Red roses and stephanotis were her bouquet and she wore the gift of the groom, pearl necklace and pearl earrings.

Mrs. Noel Butterworth, sister of the bride was matron of honour. The bridesmaids were: Gwen Davison, cousin of the bride, Marlene Dixon, sister of the groom. Flower girls were Lynn Bradley, sister of the bride and Maureen Smith, cousin of the bride. The matron of honour and the bridesmaids were gowned alike in crystal aqua iridescent taffeta floor length gowns, off the shoulder style with bolero jackets. Their mittens and hats were of the same material. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations and white mums.

They carried nosegays of pink carnations and white mums. Their hats were the same material as their dresses, and they wore the bride's gift, of pearl necklaces.

Roy McKay acted as groomsman, J. Cunningham and N. Butterworth brother in law of the groom were ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlours where the bride's mother received for the bride, wearing a dusty nylon lace gown with pleated nylon inserts with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Bradley was assisted by the groom's mother gowned in powder blue lace with pleated nylon inserts and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.
