STEWARTTOWN

16 CONFIRMED AT ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN

An impressive service was held in St. John's Anglican Church, in Stewarttown, on Sunday when Rt. Rev. Walter Bagnall, bishop of Niagara, conferred the rite of confirmation on sixteen candidates from St. Paul's Normal, St. Stephen's, Hornby and St. John's, who had been prepared by the rector of the parish, Rev. J. E. Maxwell.
Owing to the fact that harvest thanksgiving was celebrated at the evening service the church was decorated with the bounty of the harvest, flowers, fruit and grain. Harold Bran of St. Stephen's acted as bishop's chaplain.
In his address to confirmation class and congregation, the bishop spoke feelingly of the breadth and scope of the Anglican communion in all parts of the world and what a joy it is to be able to follow the service regardless of where a person lives. He presented the class with certificates and also gold and silver crosses given by the rector.
The evening service was conducted by Mr. Maxwell and a number of former members and visitors at St. John's. The choir wore new surplices and cassocks, made and given to the church by members of St. John's Guild. Ruby Tennant played the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Standish and Roddy, Mrs. H. Jenkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCall (Frances Jenkinson) were visitors on Sunday.

St. John's Guild met at Mrs. C. A. Grant's home Tuesday evening.

Members sewed for the bazaar. Next meeting will be at Mrs. Roy Bradley's home Tuesday evening, Sept. 25th.
