Pentecostal Minister Brings Bride to Town

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Allen Hall, who were married Saturday in Calvary Church, St. Catharines, will be living in Georgetown at 95 Guelph Street where Mr. Hall is pastor of Zion Pentecostal Tabernacle.

The bride, Ida Jean Gough, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gough, 15 Carleton Street, St. Catharines, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hall live at 21 Parkview Road, St. Catharines. The bride was employed at St. Catharines General Hospital before her marriage.

Ferns, white and royal purple gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony at which Rev. James H. Taylor, Toronto, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. Veasel. Mrs. Jean Woodruff was organist; soloists Mrs. Muriel Pretty and David Rodrigues, Hillborn, N.Y., sang "Submission" and "Wedding Prayer" during the service.

The bride wore white lace and nylon tulle over satin. The floor length skirt had alternated tiers of lace and nylon tulle, and the bodice, lace fitted, had long sleeves. Sequins formed the headress which held a fingertip veil and she carried red sweetheart roses on a white bible and streamers.

Violet Gough was her sister's maid of honour, wearing salmon lace tulle over crystaletta, matching bolero and headband, and carrying a colonial bouquet of white and burnt orange mums. Donna Vosburg, Brockton, N.Y., was the bridesmaid. She wore royal blue lace tulle over crystaletta, matching bolero and headpiece and she carried white and yellow mums.

Cecil Hall was groomsmen for his brother and Edward Willis was usher. The bride's father gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony.

A reception followed in the United Memorial Hall, after which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to the eastern States. Mrs. Hall travelled in a beige dress, brown accessories and corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall are both graduates of Zion Bible College of Rhode Island.

CHESS CLUB PLANS WINTER SEASON

Membership in Georgetown Chess Club now numbers 15, and enthusiasm was expressed for the winter season when members met Thursday at the home of Al Zeravlev, Guelph Street, to plan activities.

Mr. Zeravlev, who is chairman of the club, welcomed members old and new and expressed regret that the secretary, John Bolt, has moved to Toronto. Peter Brown, 48 Shelley Street, was named to succeed him.

A credit balance was reported in the funds by the treasurer, and this will be used to purchase more chess sets for the club. An offer from Leo Wolfe to use the dining hall at Terra Cotta Playgroup for a social gathering was accepted with appreciation and a committee named to arrange details. A warm welcome will be given to any chess player or anyone wishing to learn the game, to join the club.

CORRECTION

In an item in last week's Herald, a surprise party for Claire Bradley and Gail King, two names were omitted in error.

Tom Dobbie and Don Anderson should have been in the list of those attending.
