ASHGROVE
MRS. T. J. BROWNRIDGE INSTITUTE HOSTESS
The Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. T. J. Brownridge with president Mrs. W. Bird opening with the Institute Ode and creed. The theme of the meeting was agriculture and the roll call was answered with a bible verse referring to an agricultural product. During the business discussion money was voted towards buying dishes for the Equestrian Community Hall. Mrs. Harvey Nurse was in charge of the program and called on Mrs. Vern Pickett for the motto "He that tilleth his land shall have bread." Current events were given by Mrs. F. Wrigglesworth. Mrs. George Nurse gave a very amusing reading, "The Green Mountain Justice". Mrs. Garnet Laidlaw of Norval sang two lovely solos "Rose of Tralee" and "Mighty Lak a Rose", after which J. E. Whitelock presented a very interesting film on the West Indies showing scenes from Nassau, Jamaica, and Trinidad and many other places. Many tourist attractions were seen as products of the islands and the native people at work and play. A contest conducted by Mrs. H. Nurse brought the programme to a close. Lunch and a social hour followed.
