Renews Acquaintances With Western 'Natives'

Joe Hall Sr. has just returned from a three month tour of the west, seven thousand five hundred miles of it in fact. He travelled in a small English Anglia. Mr. and Mrs. Val Stein, Queen Street, made the trip with him on the way out as far as New Westminster, B.C.

Mr. Hall's trip was not only enjoyable to him but to several local families for he made several calls and went out of his way many times to contact a former Georgetown-er and to bring back first hand news to the family.

In New Westminster, B.C., his first stop he spent some time with Mrs. S. B. Groat's sister, Mrs. William Cruickshanks, he also called on her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Freeman in Elkhorn, Manitoba, on his way home.

He was in Vancouver on "Black Knight" parade day, the 11th of August and travelled with the Vancouver Black Knights to Bellingham, USA where he met Bill Pearson on parade. Bill had lived in this district and belonged to both the Orange Lodge here and the Black Knights. He now owns and operates a plumbing business in Vancouver. Mr. Pearson wanted to be remembered to his many friends here.

Mr. Hall travelled to Victoria Island where he visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Laws and sons in Nanaimo. Mrs. Laws is a sister of Mrs. Arthur Scott; Mrs. Laws and Mr. Hall travelled up to Campbell River where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Miller and family, the former Ruth Goldham of town. He also visited with Ernie Peters at Nanaimo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peters.

Coming home through Saskatchewan he called to visit with Ted Cain in Fort San, who is a patient in the sanatorium there, Mr. Cain is a brother of Jack and Margaret Cain on Victoria Street.

At Geraldton he called to see Lawrence Sinclair and family. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sinclair. Mr. Hall's last call was with his daughter Irene, Mrs. Mathies and family in Callander. Mr. Hall enjoyed his trip very much, but says there is no place like Georgetown.

ACTON $100.00 WINNER IN "TIPS" CONTEST

An Acton man, J. H. Buckland, was presented with a cheque for $100 at the Acton Roxy Theatre this week by manager Bill Leslie, who also manages the local theatre.

Mr. Buckland sent in an idea for the film "Tips" shown at the theatres as a monthly feature, and was selected as the month's $100 winner. The film will be shown in Georgetown also at a later date.

TED MIDDLETON HOME FROM RCAF SERVICE

Completing a three year term of service in the RCAF, Ted Middleton has received his discharge and has returned to Georgetown.

Ted was stationed near Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, serving with the ground crew at an air force station.
