MANY SHOWERS FOR MRS. TED LESLIE

Mrs. Ted Leslie, a bride of last month, was the guest of honour at several showers and parties prior to her wedding.

Shower hostesses were Mary Marshall, Doreen Bowes, Mrs. Ray Eastall and Isobel Ostrander and Margaret McLeod. The ladies of Home United Church and community held a miscellaneous shower in the church basement. Mrs. George Leslie had a small family party in her home and Miss Carolyn Sutton of Meadowvale entertained at a dinner at the Estaminet, Burlington.

The office staff of the Brampton Municipal building presented the bride-elect with a lamp and pair of end tables.

COMING TO THE ROXY THEATRE
"REACH FOR THE SKY" will be shown at the Roxy on November 19, 20, 21. Don't miss this excellent picture.

MORRISON-SIMKINS VOWS AT PORT CREDIT UNITED

Rev. T. V. Hart officiated in the First United Church, Port Credit, when Kathleen Marjorie Simkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Simkins, 109 Prince Charles Drive, Delton, Georgetown, was united in marriage to William Charles Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. James Morrison of Alderwood.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white Chantilly lace over a bouffant white satin skirt. The Empire lace jacket was trimmed with seed pearls on the collar and lily-point sleeves, matching her silk-illusion fingertip veil which fell from a crown of white lace and seed pearls. She carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book and mauve orchid with rosebud streamers.

Miss Lois Schram of Mimico, the maid of honour, was gowned in Fashion pink lace and Miss Noreen Showell of Brampton, bridesmaid, wore iced lime-green lace. Both wore matching feather swirl head-dresses and carried cascades of deep pink roses and white carnations. Miss Wendy Maltby, of Munden Park, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and was gowned in cafe-au-lait silk taffeta with matching head-dress, and carried a basket of yellow mums and roses. Mr. Jack Boustead, of Alderwood was best man and ushers were Mr. Leon Williams, of Alderwood, the brother-in-law of the groom, and Mr. Ben Kollshk of Lakeview.

Receiving at her home in Georgetown, the bride's mother wore cobalt blue lace with matching hat, assisted by the groom's mother, wearing mauve taffeta dress and accessories. For going away the bride donned a pearl-gray suit with turquoise accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple are now living in Toronto.

FILM SHOW PROCEEDS FOR MUSEUM VISIT

Ron Brighty, 28 Hewson Cres., one of Georgetown's newer residents brought much pleasure to the audience at the Stone School on Saturday evening, October 13th on the occasion of Family Film Night. Mr. Brighty showed coloured movies of places he and Mrs. Brighty have visited in the two and a half years they have been in Canada. There was a cartoon for the children first and pictures of animals taken in various zoos. Beautiful coloured scenes of the Rockies and of the cities of Victoria, New York, Washington and Los Angeles as well as historical places in the United States showed Mr. Brighty's expert photography. The proceeds of the evening will be used later in the year for the pupils to go on a trip to the Royal Museum. The evening was sponsored by the Stone School Association.

LIMEHOUSE

WORK PROGRESSING ON MEMORIAL HALL

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McDonald of Elmwood visited the S. Kirkpatrick last week-end.

Mrs. Seddon of Toronto was with Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Bourne for a few days recently.

Mrs. E. Karn has been under the doctor's care for the past ten days. We hope for her improvement very soon.

Church services were withdrawn at Limehouse Presbyterian Church last Sunday on account of Knox, Georgetown anniversary services. Work is progressing steadily in rebuilding the collapsed wall of Limehouse Memorial Hall. The foundation was completed on Monday.
