Mrs. Walter Oliver, 63 Local Lady's Mother

Mrs. Fred McKee, 15 Byron St., suffered a family bereavement on October 20th when her mother, Margaret Walker Oliver, 63, died suddenly at the Queensway Hospital, Toronto. She had visited in town the previous weekend and had been ill only a few days.

A native of Campbelltown, Argylshire, Scotland, she came to Canada as a girl, had lived in Toronto until four years ago and since then at Alderwood.

Surviving are her husband, Walter Oliver; three children, Mrs. Fred McKee, Georgetown, William and Charles Oliver, Toronto; six grandchildren including Nancy and Beth McKee, Georgetown; and brothers and sister Mary, William and Charles Carson, Toronto.

Interment was made in Park Lawn Cemetery, following funeral service at the Wm. Speers Chapel last Wednesday.

NEW FIRE PUMPER IS DEMONSTRATED

The public had an opportunity to see the new fire pumper in action Saturday when members of the fire department, directed by Chief William Hyde, arranged a demonstration at the rear of the new hydro building on Water St. Firemen pumped water out of the stream which has been covered over to create a parking area. The water is pumped through a manhole left for fire protection for the downtown district.

4-H GIRLS STUDY COTTON ACCESSORIES

The first two meetings of the 4H Club were held at the home of Mrs. Jesse McEnery who is leader of the group, assisted by Mrs. Tom Gibson. The study for the year is "Cotton Accessories for the club Girl's Bedroom" and the girls are planning to make bedspreads, chair pads, dresser covers and waste paper baskets. Officers elected are: president, Bonnie Cotton; secretary, Beth McEnery; press reporters, Jean Lawr, Helen Hills and Elizabeth Gibson.

The afternoon auxiliary of the WMS met at the home of Mrs. R. Warne for their October meeting. The worship service based on the first chapter of Ephesians was in charge of Mrs. Kirkwood and dealt with Paul's answer to perplexing problems of the early Christians. It was planned to buy flannelette and make articles for layettes, these to be sent overseas with bale which is being packed. The roll call was answered with something remembered from our last Study Book. Mrs. F. Shortill introduced the new study book "East from Burma". The Christian Church is established in most eastern countries but Hinduism and Buddhism as the main religions.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black and family visited with friends in Fergus on Sunday.

The WMS groups held their joint thank-offering meeting Sunday evening. Mrs. Blacklock of Toronto who is convener of Vocational Bible School work in the Church of Christ was guest speaker. The worship service was led by Mrs. Warne and Miss B. Hills. Mrs. Warne told of the disciple, Andrew a humble fisherman with no great qualities of leadership who represented the large groups of ordinary people, labouring faithfully behind the scenes. Mrs. Bud Anderson of Acton sang a lovely solo "Come Unto Me." A reading on Stewardship entitled "A rich man's dream" was read by Mrs. Elwood Snow, which told of a man who made money his God. Jean Lawr gave a temperance reading "The Power of Example. Bonnie Cotton contributed a violin solo also.

Mrs. F. J. Shortill thanked Mrs. Blacklock for her inspiring message and all those who had taken part in the service.

STEWARTTOWN

H. BRAIN IS NEW CHURCH LAY READER

Ineka Koeslag, conducted the Junior W.A. meeting held last week at Mrs. Baily's home. She chose "Once again dear Lord, we pray, for the children far away" for the opening hymn. We learned the 4th verse of "The Wise may Bring their Learning." The Thursday Pledge was presented in prayer — "the village Island at B.C. and the Aklavik Hospital. The second chapter of "The Seven Adventurers" was read, and the girls sewed baby clothes in the busy period.

Mrs. H. Brain, the newly elected lay reader for the parish of Norval and Hornby and Stewarttown, conducted the service at St. John's Church, Sunday afternoon.

Church will be at 9:30 a.m. next Sunday. A service of Holy Communion.

The W.A. meeting will be held this Thursday at Mrs. Blizzard's home.

St. John's Woman's Guild are holding their annual bazaar Saturday afternoon, November 3rd in the township Hall.

ASHGROVE

NORVAL LADIES GUESTS ASHGROVE MISSION GROUP

The annual fall thankoffering meeting of the WMS was held on Tuesday, October 23 in the church basement with ladies from Norval United Church as guests. President Mrs. Leslie Giffen welcomed every one and opened with the hymn "We Plough the Fields and Scatter." Devotional period was taken by Mrs. Hartley Cameron of Norval who gave Bible readings from Genesis and Psalms and said we must give thanks to God and rejoice in every given thing he has us. Prayer was offered by Mrs. M. Guy Wilson, president of Norval Society. Study chapter was in charge of Mrs. C. B. Dick on South Korea and southeast Asia. Korea with its twenty million population is struggling with the terrible aftermath of war, but she's patiently bearing up and rebuilding. Our United Churches are closely linked with South Korea and shipments of clothing, artificial limbs for cripples, the self help projects for widows in sewing and weaving and Christian instruction through the schools and colleges and radio broadcasting comprise a partial list of heartening Christian effort on behalf of a courageous people. Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. John Bell, hoddly assisted with the chapter. The beautiful solo "He Smiled on Me" was sung by Mrs. Garnet Laidlaw of Norval. Offering was received and dedicated by Mrs. T. J. Brownridge. Prayer for chosen missionary was given by Mrs. N. Russ. Mrs. Thomas Giffen gave the vote of thanks to those who had made such a splendid meeting and a social hour was spent when the lunch committee, Mrs. Vern Pickett and Mrs. Cecil Wilson served a lovely lunch.

Last Friday evening, Mr. Thomas Blackett entertained at his home, his business associates from Toronto to a turkey dinner and a shooting party. Everyone present reported the evening a wonderful success.

The Young People held their Citizenship meeting on Sunday evening at the home of Bob Ruddell in charge of Evelyn and Norman Bird. Allan Brownridge read the Scripture. Evelyn Wilson gave the prayer and Evelyn Bird had charge of the Study Chapter.

Mr. Donald McNabb of Windsor spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Malcolm McNabb and brother Fraser.

Sandra Tindale celebrated her fifteenth birthday on Monday, October 29th. Happy birthday and many more to you Sandra.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Milton Bird is a patient in hospital at Guelph. All her friends hope she will soon be home again.
