Finance Company Changes Name

John Douglas, manager of Personal Finance Company of Canada's office in Brampton at 51 Main St. N., has announced that his company has changed its name to Beneficial Finance Co. of Canada.

"It is with some regret," says Mr. Douglas, "that we honorably retire a name that has been so well-known in this district for over two years. However, our new name, which is the name of our parent corporation, more fully describes the many services we now offer."

Mr. Douglas explains that his company today is literally a department store of family credit. In addition to making so-called personal loans, the company offers expert counsel on bill consolidation, a nationwide cash-credit card recognized at Beneficial offices everywhere, and time payment plan for purchase of many consumer services and products.

The name change, Mr. Douglas emphasizes, will in no way effect present personnel of the Brampton office.

Rudy Meier Preacher At Laymen Service

Laymen of the parish of Georgetown and Glen Williams participated fully in the annual brotherhood Sunday of the Anglican communion.

At St. Alban's, Glen Williams, Doug Townsend and John Haines read the scripture lessons, while William Korzack conducted the state prayers. Wayne Norton was crucifer.

Men of St. George's church met for their corporate communion and breakfast and at the service a new church flag was dedicated. The flag is the cross of St. George on a white background; four green maple leaves are located in each quarter representing the ecclesiastical provinces of the Canadian church. The flag is the gift of a member of the congregation.

At eleven o'clock, men of the BAC conducted the service. Harold Henry and Logan MacDonald read the lessons; choirmaster Bruce Harding sang the service while Will Brisbois and Thomas Warnes took other portions of the service. Paul Armstrong and Brock Bradley were servers.

Rudy Meier, a member of the BAC preached the sermon at both churches. A native of Switzerland who emigrated to Canada two years ago, he dealt with the contrast of the church in Europe and our country and noted appreciation of the fellowship he has received in his new homeland. Later in the service Rev. Kenneth Richardson presented Mr. Meier with a parochial lay reader's licence.

The evensong service was conducted by J. L. Lambert, with Mr. Meier reading scripture and Grant Caseley as crucifer.

Rev. John Smith Anniversary Speaker

Sunday, October 28th, was a day filled with the dignity of worship and fellowship at St. John's United Church on the occasion of their One Hundred and Seventeenth Anniversary services. Rev. John Smith of Whitley, former minister of St. John's preached at all three services.

At the 9.30 service, he preached on "Love, the greatest thing in the World." At 11 o'clock service his theme was "Arise and Be Doing" and at the evening service "For All The World." The choir sang special music at all of the services. Tom Trouton was to sing "The Trumpet Shall Sound" but was ill and unable to attend. Miss Ruth Evans sang "O Rest in the Lord" at the evening service. All services were very well attended.

After evening service the Young People of the Church were hosts to the congregation at a Fireside. Tom Forgrave, president of the organization, was chairman, the Fireside was held in honour of Rev. Smith, Mrs. Smith and their children, who were with them. Bill Whitney gave them greetings from the Young People and Ernie Forgrave spoke on behalf of the congregation. Mrs. Jack Bailey and Isabel Dobson treated the gathering with duets.

Congratulations and good wishes were extended to Norman Laird, organist and choir master who spent five years ago Sunday started his work with the choir in St. John's.

CONGRATULATES COUNCIL, FIREMEN, NEW PUMPER

20 Guelph St. Oct. 29th, 1956

Dear Mr. Editor: Watching the new fire pumper in action on Saturday has prompted me to congratulate the town council for their foresight in providing such an excellent addition to Georgetown's firefighting equipment. Those responsible for its purchase had the interest of the town at heart and every citizen should feel good to know that we have this added protection against fire.

I would also like to say how much the services of members of the fire department are appreciated by citizens. As a member of the old brigade years ago, I know what work and skill is involved for those who volunteer to guard life and property. I know this feeling is shared by everyone, and though people don't always take the trouble to say thanks, it doesn't mean that they don't value such public service.

CAR SKIDS, DITCHED NEAR GLEN WILLIAMS

An accident on the 10th Line, north of Glen Williams, on Sunday, resulted in $250 damage to a late model car owned by James D. Emmerson of Meadowvale.

Mr. Emmerson was travelling west on the 10th line and had just started down a long steep hill when his car skidded in the gravel and careened into the north ditch. The car, a 1956 Meteor coach, received extensive damage to the front and right side.

Neither the driver nor the only passenger in the car, Miss Joset Mendez, 20 Warehome Drive, of Streetsville, were injured. Constable Yeomans of the OPP investigated the accident but not until almost 5 p.m., when he completed the
