Gas Company Salesman Meets Death On Hi'way

Lorne Masters, 32, district salesman for the United Suburban Gas Co. and formerly assistant manager of the Grand Union-Carroll's store here was instantly killed last week in a motor accident. His car ran off No. 25 highway about 4 miles north of Milton.

He was returning from a company meeting in Hamilton when the accident occurred. OPP police from Milton investigated after the accident scene was discovered by Jim Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarron who were driving to Acton.

It is believed the accident happened about 1 a.m. last Wednesday morning. The car, which hit two trees and rolled over was a total wreck.

The accident victim had just been elected president of Acton Home & School association. He was a member of the Y's Men's Club and was a star third baseman the year Acton won championship baseball honours. He played goal in junior hockey and was on Hespeler and Acton hockey teams. Last year he coached the intermediate ball team and played some games.

Mr. Masters worked for 15 years as foreman at Baxter Laboratories. Last summer he worked in Georgetown as assistant manager at Grand Union-Carroll's leaving this position to become associated with United Suburban.

He lived on McDonald Blvd., Acton with his wife and young family, Lynne, 9, Wendy, 6 and Gary, 2. His wife, Marjorie Lane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, 12 Union St., Georgetown.

Also surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Masters, two sisters, Mrs. Earl Masales and Mrs. Clifford Ashley and two brothers, Victor and William, all residents of Acton.

The funeral service was held Saturday in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton. Interment followed in Fairview Cemetery.

Stella Lewandowski GHS Graduate Weds

A double-ring ceremony in Grace Anglican Church, Milton, united in marriage Stella Helen Lewandowski and Gordon Allan Cragg. Rev. D. A. Powell officiated, with Mrs. Ledwith playing the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewandowski of R. R. 1 Acton and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cragg of Milton. The bride is a 1956 graduate in the special commercial course at Georgetown High School.

A full length Chantilly type lace and tulle gown of bridal white was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The bodice was of lace to the low curved V, the neckline enhanced with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with tulle panels showered with lace motifs and panels of lace insertion. Her fingertip veil was caught to a petal-shaped tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honour, Noreen Mitchell, wore a full length gown of pale blue and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Frances Janies, the bridesmaid, wore a yellow full length gown and carried mauve carnations. Both wore matching headresses.

Paul Wilson was groomsman and Donald Lemon ushered the guests.

The wedding party received about 200 guests in the Polish Alliance Hall, Guelph. Mrs. Lewandowski chose a blue dress with pale blue accessories. A corsage of red roses completed her ensemble. Mrs. Cragg wore for the occasion a brown taffeta dress with a contrasting corsage of yellow roses.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Sault Ste. Marie. The bride wore for travelling a blue dress with black patent leather shoes and purse, white hat and gloves.

Former GHS Teammates On Opposing Squads

Two of Georgetown High School's best reasons for winning the GAMP football championship last year met head on a week ago Saturday when Dave Hart, now with the University of Western Ontario, and Sandy Mackenzie, now at Ryerson Tech, played against each other in a football game at Ryerson.

U.W.O. won the game 34-0, but both Georgetown boys turned in fine performances.

HALLOWEEN PARTY FOR GIRL GUIDES

The First Georgetown Girl Guide Company held a masquerade party in St. George's Anglican Church hall on Monday evening, October 29th. They had as their guests commissioner Reid, public relations officer; the newly appointed District Commissioner, Mrs. N. Marchment, who is also the Ranger captain and the 1st Glen Williams Guide Company.

Mrs. Reid tested four Georgetown Guides for their hostess badge, Dawn Fiebig, Barbara Kinrade, Dorothy Thompson and Pamela Turnbull. Costume winners were Carol Lane, Ann Lorraine Noble and Mrs. Marchment. It was a most successful and happy party.
