SOME THOUGHTS ON THE WORLD CRISIS

November 12th, 1956
45 Main St., Georgetown

Dear Editor:

I wonder if you know how much your editorials are read and appreciated by so many of us.

In the editor's column I keep in touch with the vital issues of our fast growing town. And this week it must have struck a very responsive chord in the hearts of the great majority of its readers.

I wondered how many thousands of people now living in Canada must feel as they pick up the paper or listen to a newscast if they have relatives in Hungary or any of the Iron Curtain countries. In the steady worsening situation in all the world today we hear the word Armageddon more and more on the lips of everyone. Everywhere people are beginning to wonder, is this really it?

To those who spend much time in the study of the Bible, the world-crisis is just a fulfillment of the prophecy of Jesus which we find in Matthew 24. He told his disciples what signs to look for at the end of the world. The Apostle Timothy in 11 Timothy, chapter 3, tells us that "this know also that in the last days, perilous times shall come." etc. Were there ever such perilous times in the world before this? No. And again in Matthew 24, verse 21, Jesus said "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world" to this time. No, nor ever shall be. And in verse 34, he says "this generation" that sees these things will not pass away till all these things be fulfilled. Serious minded persons are asking themselves "What can I do about it and how can I be saved in that terrible day when God will arise up in his anger and destroy those who are ruining the earth.

Armageddon is the day of God's anger, not man's but the abominations of man, his wickedness and greed and bloodshed (under the influence of Satan the devil) is the thing that will bring on God's anger. God created this beautiful world and everything in it is beautiful but man is bent on destruction. If we want to survive God's anger, we have to take the Apostle Paul's advice, Ephesians 6, verse 11. Put on the whole armour of God. That ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities against powers? Against the rulers of the darkness of this world. Against spiritual wickedness in high places. Therefore, take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand the evil day, and having done all to stand. Paul told his followers to put on the New Man and put away the old to put away lying and speak the truth every man to his neighbour.

If we want to live for ever, everlasting life we have to put forward an effort to get it. That effort is to get to know God through the pages of the only communication he has given to man today. The Holy Bible in John 17, ver. 3, Jesus said "And this is life eternal that they might know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The tribulation of the Nations has only just begun. We have this prophecy from the prophet Jeremiah, chapter 25, verses 29, to 33 "I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith Jehovah of hosts for Jehovah hath a controversy with the nations. And the slain of the Lord (Jehovah) shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth. They shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried. They shall be dung upon the face of the ground. Yes, we know there will be scoffers. That also is prophesied in these same chapters. Wise people will look into the prophecies and reap a bountiful reward. Life at best in this world is only fleeting, but it is the dearest of our possessions. How much more rewarding is everlasting life in the promised New World. 2nd, Peter tells us chapter 3 that there will be scoffers, and it tells us "For this they willingly are ignorant of. That by the word of God heavens were of old. And the earth, standing out of the water and in the water whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water perished. But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

Mr. Editor: this started off as a little note of appreciation for your editorial and the wisdom of your council to find out the truth from the best news source before coming to any hasty conclusions regarding world conditions.

As usual my zeal for what is the greatest interest in my life the Bible has gotten the best of me again, and I hope you will forgive me for taking up so much of your valuable time. And now I have another thought. Since I have received so many thanks from a host of dear friends in town I would feel greatly honoured if you would find the space if possible in your letter column for this letter also.

Thanking you for past favours.

JOHN ORD RETURNS FROM TRIP OVERSEAS

John Ord, 34 Market Street, arrived home last week from England.

Mr. and Mrs. Ord made a sudden plane trip overseas in October when they were called by the death of her father. With sons Robin and Clive, they arrived in time to attend the funeral service for Wynne Scott, who died suddenly October 14th.

Mr. Scott had spent his life as a farmer at Hisland, Oswestry, Shropshire. He leaves his wife and an only daughter, Mrs. Ord.

Mrs. Ord and the children are remaining in England for another month or two. Her mother is planning to come back with her for a visit in Georgetown.

GUIDE COY. HAS A TRACKING HIKE

On Saturday, the 2nd Company, Girl Guides, went on a tracking and stalking hike.

The girls met at the Anglican church at 11:30 a.m. and an advance party composed of Brenda Dawson, Mary Lawson, Cornelia Broadzant and Mrs. Norman Marchment started 15 minutes ahead of the company.

They laid down a trail, using woodcraft signs, which took them through bush, over streams and along ravines, across a river by fallen trees, in the Stewarttown district. At certain points along the trail, the guides found signals, instructing them to do a bunny hop around trees, jump over objects and serenade in front of the major's home.

The hunters finally caught up to the advance party and the group returned to the St. George's sub-rooms for dinner. The girls prepared hot chocolate and hot dogs and pies for themselves and two leaders. The afternoon was finished up with games and songs. Judy Richardson expressed thanks to the commissioner, Mrs. Marchment, and the captain, Mrs. Margaret Grieve, for the wonderful day.
