brought a certificate from the province of Ontario. Receiving at the door and looking after signing the register were two granddaughters Betty Mae Price and Marilyn Madill. Mrs. D. H. Lindsay, Mrs. Morgan Madill and Mrs. Price received the guests in the front room and then showed them to the dining room where lunch was served from the table, decorated with a lace cloth centred with a bouquet of red roses.

Two old neighbours, Miss Emma Cole and Mrs. Ella McEnery poured tea. A niece, Mrs. Wilfred Harting served, assisted by a neighbour, Mrs. Willa Shortill. Mrs. A. Robinson also helped. Their grandson Billy Price and son D. H. Lindsay and Morgan Madill assisted in the kitchen.

Among the bouquets was a beautiful basket of yellow and bronze mums from the ex-pupils of Blue Mountain School, with the following address which was introduced by Harding Price and read by Fred W. Shortill: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lindsay: This day, December 2nd, 1956, stands out most prominently in our community from the standpoint of wedding anniversaries.

We, the pupils of Blue Mountain School, feel that we cannot let this occasion pass without offering our congratulations and best wishes to you. We count it remarkable that you have been spared to live together for 65 years and that all those years have been spent on the same farm to which you brought your bride so many years ago. Also that during those years you have been active in the same church, the same school, and all the social events of the same community. This is, indeed, a milestone and a record hard to be beaten in the Dominion of Canada.

We are proud that you pioneered in our school section and saw fit to establish your home among us and expend your energies for our welfare. We like to reminisce and think of the years that you, Mr. Lindsay, were trustee, while we were pupils of S. S. 14, Esquesing.

God's blessing on you both. For what you have given. For the cheer you have given in life's thick and thin. You have been so kind so helpful and true. We pray for more years To be given you. And this is our toast For folks so grand We love and admire you As none in the land; And if the Giver of days Makes us look as sweet, As you two love birds, Whom we today greet; And give us 65 years Of such wedded bliss To look like you At a time like this. We'll fall on our knees In joyous praise For your inspiration Through all our long days.

We ask you to accept these flowers to mark this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kentner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery, Fred W. Shortill, Mrs. David Russell, Mrs. Nellie English, Miss Beatrice Hills, Miss Kate McKay, Alex. McKay, John Campbell Harding Price.

FIREMEN URGE VOTE AFFIRMATIVE, ARENA
Georgetown, Ont., Dec. 4th, 1956

Dear Mr. Editor: Members of Georgetown Fire Department have one good reason for hoping you will support the vote for an arena debenture issue which will provide funds for much-needed alterations and remodeling of the building. Up to the present, we have been reluctant to have an inspection of the building by the fire marshal's office, because we have a good idea what the result might be. It is doubtful if the building would even meet the minimum requirements for fire safety, and there would be some possibility that such an inspection could mean disaster for present arena operations. We hope that a majority of voters will ensure future years of activity by marking their ballot in the "Yes" Section when they go to the polls next Monday. Sincerely,
WM. HYDE, Fire Chief

CHRISTMAS PARTY CHURCH DAUGHTERS

A turkey dinner, exchange of presents with Santa and two clown helpers in attendance, and a program of carol-singing and skits, made the annual Christmas party held by the Daughters of St-George's on Monday evening, a most enjoyable one. Members and their guests sat down to tables decorated in the Yuletide motif. At the conclusion of the dinner, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, on behalf of the members, presented Mrs. Thomas Eason with a lapel locket, in appreciation of her services as president for the past year. The rector, Rev. Kenneth Richardson, also spoke a few words of encouragement and praise for the work done by the Daughters. After dinner, members gathered around and joined in singing carols while Mrs. Sam Penrice played the piano. After some entertaining skits and confetti, Santa and his helpers arrived by toboggan to distribute the gift exchange. Mrs. Jim Irwin, Mrs. Sam Penrice and Mrs. Thomas Party were the committee in charge of entertainment and also enacted the skits.
