FARM NEWS

J. H. Taylor, Appleby Federation President

J. H. Taylor of Appleby was elected president of the Halton Federation of Agriculture for 1957 at the annual meeting of the County Federation held in the Fairview School auditorium. Other officers elected are as follows: Vice-presidents, R. J. Laking, Mac Sprowl, Ed. Fish, Brock Harris; secretary-treasurer, A. R. Coulter.

R. L. Davison, the retiring president, presided over the very excellent programme of the evening. The gathering was honoured with an unexpected visit from Floyd Griesbach, the secretary of the National Farm Forum Committee. Mr. Griesbach was accompanied by Wyatt Brice of the Agricultural Education and Information Bureau in Jamaica. The interest of the audience in Credit Unions was certainly stimulated by the enlightening and humorous address of Bruce McCutcheon of Dundalk. Mr. McCutcheon is certainly an authority on the subject of Credit Unions having served as a director of the Credit Union located in Dundalk since its inception, and in addition is a member of the Board of Co-operative Union of Ontario.

It was indeed a gripping and amazing story which Mr. McCutcheon told, based on their experience at Dundalk. Frankly, we will be a little surprised if a Rural Credit Union does not materialize in Halton as a result of this address.

The group discussion on "The Role of the Delegate" ably led by National Farm Forum secretary Griesbach was another feature of the outstanding evening's programme, which marked the 1956 annual meeting of the Halton Federation.
