THANKS EXPRESSED FOR PARADE HELP

Georgetown, Dec. 26, 1956

Dear Sir:

With the kind permission of your paper, I personally, on behalf of the Georgetown Lions Club, would like to thank all those good and considerate men, women and children who braved the terrible weather we had on Saturday for our Lions Club Santa Claus parade. Also for the work and effort that was put into the building of the floats and other entries to make this the best parade Georgetown has ever had.

It is this community spirit that makes our town a good place to live and bring up our children in. It certainly was too bad we couldn't have given every entry in the parade a prize, for they were all good, but I think that the best prize of all is the thrill of being able to see the beaming faces of the children and adults of our town and vicinity as they watched the Santa parade.

There was a large crowd who braved the weather to come out and greet the parade on the four corners, which goes to show the appreciation of the efforts put into it.

I would also like to thank all the firms and business people who made donations to help with the advertising for the Santa Claus parade which we had in the Georgetown Herald.

To all those good people who participated in one way or another to make the parade a success, I would just like to say thank you and my best wishes to everyone for a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year for 1957.

Sincerely,

Lion Dick Riddall,
Parade Chairman

CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Morgan McFarlane conducted a Christmas carol service in St. John's United Church last Sunday evening at 7 p.m. In the church beautifully illuminated with candlelight and decorations the congregation sang many of the old and familiar carols. Mr. Tom Trouten a baritone sang "The People That Walked in Darkness", Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth and Mr. V. Stein sang the duet "O Lovely Night" and a double trio of young people sang the Inn Keeper's Carol and the choir the Searching Carol.

A Christmas Eve service was conducted at eleven o'clock, this service was in the greater part music provided by the young people of the church and the choir. The Flemish carol was sung, a duet by Sandra Sproule and Tom Forgrave, Douglas Wrigglesworth sang "As Joseph Went Walking" and Sandra Sproule sang Luther's Cradle Hymn.

During the singing of "Silent Night" the girls from Cedarvale school came in procession down the aisle of the church. Under the direction of Mrs. I. Margeson and Mrs. Armstrong who accompanied them on the piano, the girls gave the Christmas message in song and story. Mrs. Margeson and Mrs. Armstrong are on the staff at the school. This is the first time that such a Christmas Eve service has been held at St. John's and a large congregation joined in the celebration of the service.

NORVAL PRESBYTERIANS HAVE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Last Friday evening in Norval Presbyterian Church Sunday School hall, the pupils gave a program of Christmas joy, depicting the life of Christ in song, story and coloured slides. Recitations, solos, and piano solos rounded out the evening. Last of all came the much-anticipated visit from Santa Claus, when presents were given to the children, and lunch was served to all present.

Rev. G. Lockhart Royal was chairman for the evening which had been arranged by the Sunday School superintendent, Mr. Thomas McGeer.

DEDICATE GIFTS TO GLEN, TOWN CHURCHES

During the Christmas season a number of gifts to the church were dedicated in the Anglican parish of Georgetown and Glen Williams.

At St. George's 36 new Books of Common Prayer were dedicated in memory of Henry and Bertha Fryer, Mrs. Kelly Kidd, Mrs. E. Richardson and the former rector of the parish, Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson.

A liturgical gift was made to the church for the altar in the form of a beautiful white burse and veil, and was used for the first time on Christmas eve. The gift was made by Mrs. Gordon Cousens.

At the Christmas day children's and family service, with the boys and girls' choirs participating in the nativity service, two presentations of a large edition of the hymn book with music were made. The recipients were Robert Evis and John Knight, and the award was for loyalty, devotion and attendance at choir practice and at church services. The gift was provided by Jack Armstrong and presented by the rector, Rev. Kenneth Richardson.

At St. Alban's, Glen Williams, 60 new Books of Common Prayer and twelve new choir hymn books with music were dedicated in memory of Mr. Montague Merryday. Many of the books will be used by the new junior boys' and girls' choir of St. Alban's.

ENGLISH PHONE CALL FINE CHRISTMAS PRESENT
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tennant, 14 Elgin Street, had a wonderful Christmas present when they received a phone call at 8 o'clock Monday night from their son Bill who has been living in England for the past five years.

Bill is living in Kenward's Heath, Sussex, and the Tennant's report the call came through beautifully. Unfortunately there is a three-minute limit on overseas calls and it is difficult to say all one wants to in such a short time. Nevertheless Mr. and Mrs. Tennant were happy to have even three minutes.

MRS. VERN ARCHER BEST CAKE GUESSER
Mrs. Vern Archer, R. R. 3, was only one jelly bean away from a perfect guess, when results of the Christmas cake contest were tallied up on Saturday.

A Christmas cake, baked by Mrs. Walter Gray, was the prize. Mrs. Gray baked the cake and donated it to the Lions Club as a means of raising money for the community swimming pool. Beside the cake, which was exhibited in Barrager Cleaners window, was a jar of jelly beans on which people were asked to submit guesses.

No one, including the donor, knew the exact number of beans in the jar until the count was made on Saturday. It turned out there were 370, and Mrs. Archer guessed 369. Total proceeds which are being given to the swimming pool fund, were $50.00.

To all our patrons . . . our warmest thanks and best wishes for a very festive and happy Holiday season.
