HONOUR TWO COUPLES WEDDING PRESENTATIONS. On Friday night, a large group of friends and neighbors of two young couples in the community gathered at the Stewarttown hall to honour them with wedding gifts and congratulations. Mrs. T. Gibson and Mr. William Kirkwood made the presentation of a glass rolling pin fitted with $52.00 to Mr. and Mrs. Garret Nealy (Margaret Foster). Miss Muriel Hiltz and Mr. Lloyd Swindlehurst made the presentation of a chair and television lamp to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson (Noreen Mitchell). Both couples responded with their thanks and the evening was spent playing cards and dancing.

The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. A. Neelton for their January meeting. The president, Mrs. Robert McEnery presided and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall had charge of the devotion which was based on the 123rd Psalm. The roll call was answered by the paying of fees. Two new members responded and were added to the list. After the business period, Mrs. McLean conducted an interesting contest and the meeting closed with the Misspah benediction. Lunch was then served by those appointed, assisted by the hostess.

Mrs. Leo Jamieson was hostess to the Evening Auxiliary last Thursday evening. Seventeen members answered the roll call by paying their fees for the coming year. The new president, Mrs. E. McEnery conducted the meeting. Mrs. E. Snow took the devotional period and Mrs. J. Black the missionary topic, which was based on the countries of Indo-China and The Philippine Islands. The treasurer gave a splendid report of the year's misslary giving, the amount of $108.00 being sent to the Presbytery. Other secretaries heard from were Friendship, Mission Band, Baby Band and the secretary read the new slate of officers for the coming year which is as follows: President, Mrs. E. McEnery, 1st vice-president, Mrs. N. Sinclair, 2nd vice-president, Mrs. J. McEnery, secretary, Mrs. T. Gibson, treasurer, Mrs. N. Sinclair, Christian stewardship, Mrs. J. Black, literature, Mrs. Floyd Shortill, friendship, Mrs. E. Snow, supply, Mrs. C. Snow, associate helpers, Mrs. J. McEnery, Christian citizenship, Mrs. M. Baker, Mission Band, Mrs. A. Law, baby band, Mrs. E. Snow, press, Mrs. F. J. Sherrill. The hostess and the social committee served refreshments and the meeting closed with the auxiliary's benediction.

Below zero temperatures and bad roads kept quite a number of our people from attending church Sunday morning, but Mr. Neelton is hoping for better weather next week when we are to have as guest speaker Rev. Daniel Patila from India at both morning and evening services. He is the Principal of the Theological College at Indore and a real treat is in store for both young and old. Another special event in the life of our church this week will be the annual congregational meeting on Thursday night at the church.

ATTEND BROTHER-IN-LAW'S FUNERAL, NEW TORONTO Mrs. William Hayes, Mrs. Gerald Perkins, Mrs. John Emmerson, Gear Hayes and William Hayes attended the funeral last week in St. Margaret's Anglican Church, New Toronto of Mr. C. A. Mandar. Mr. Mandar was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Hayes. Gear Hayes and William Hayes were two of the pallbearers for their uncle.

No Heat for the Birds

Recover the heat that goes up your chimney. The chimney losses average for oil furnaces 25%, for space heaters 35% and for hand-fired coal 50%. You can recover much of this heat and reduce your fuel bills with a Mortemp Heat Saver. The Mortemp heat saver installs in place of 1-length of stove pipe and the built in fan circulates warm air from the heat that is normally lost. In your basement the Mortemp Heat Saver will increase the warmth of your basement, make the recreation room or workshop more comfortable and speed the drying of laundry on cold wet days. On your space heater or Quebec heater the Mortemp Heat Saver will reduce your fuel bills while it circulates the heat more evenly. Heat Savers for 6 or 7 inch pipe $49.95 for 8 inch pipe $55.95 Installation a small amount extra Canadian Standards Association approved. For more information call or write

CARS MEET, DAMAGED AT JOHN ST. CULVERT

Damage amounted to between $200 and $300 when two cars met head on at the John Street culvert early Friday morning. Edward Pauley, 1 Academy Rd., was driving south on John Street at about 7:40 a.m. and was almost through the culvert when a northbound vehicle driven by George H. Koeslag of R. R. 2 Georgetown rounded the sharp turn at the southern entrance to the tunnel. The cars collided just outside the entrance.

The only injury sustained in the collision was to Daisy Mae Pauley, a passenger in the Pauley vehicle. She was treated for injuries to her left knee. Constable Ted Scott investigated the accident.
