Athletic Association Promotes Many Activities

Proving that Georgetown's public spirit hasn't been lost, Ken McMillan recently gave permission to the Georgetown Athletic Association to use his building on the Highway Water Street corner. Mr. McMillan is allowing the club to use the whole upstairs of the building, which many years ago was the Arnold Glove Factory, and it has proved to be an excellent gymnasium.

Under the direction of Peter Gaylor, Paul Barber, Henry Hansen and Cst. Hatley Lowe of the local police force, the recent store rooms have been transformed into a practical gym with a boxing ring, two speed bags, high and low bars, rings, several small mats, a weight lifting room, an office and the main floor for general training.

The club soon hopes to expand into archery in the early spring, with an indoor range, ballroom dancing and swimming in the later summer.

Plans are now being made for a benefit dance sponsored by the Georgetown Police Department on April 3rd in the arena Rose Room. The proceeds from this dance will be used to purchase satisfactory equipment to carry on proper training.

Further information about the athletic association can be obtained from Cst. Lowe, Ross Norton or any member of the Georgetown Police Dept.

THE DAYS ARE getting longer, and those who work till 6 p.m. notice now that it is almost light when they go home.

NEWS AROUND THE ARENA

NHL All-Stars were defeated Saturday, Feb. 2 in an exhibition game at Brampton 9-1, better luck next time, boys. Manager Jack Gudgeon, Junior A and Jim Blair, American League all stars having trouble getting exhibition games, guess our neighbouring towns want to keep their All Stars on the secret list until tournament time, eh, what?

Commissioner Herb Arnold of the NHL (12-13) wishes to notify all boys in the league that with the mutual agreement of the coaches and manager he has found it necessary to disband the New York Rangers and Detroit Red Wings. The boys from these two teams will be assigned to the four remaining teams. The two teams were formed after the league had started as the number of boys registering seem to warrant two more teams being added. Through the season the boys have not been turned out to make their teams full strength. Due to the low standing of the two teams being disbanded, it has been decided to follow the course mentioned instead of breaking up existing lines on the four remaining teams to give needed strength to Detroit and Rangers. This will also enable the coaches to keep lines intact that are transferred to them from Detroit and Rangers.

The time for NHL games will now be increased to one full hour so all the boys will receive plenty of ice time. Good luck to all the boys being transferred and keep up the fine sportsmanlike attitude you have shown all season, even though you were on the bottom of the standings, that's what counts, fellows.

Manager Jim Ford and coach Dave Irons have their work cut out for them with the All-Stars and the coach Bill Hewitt goes to Chicago to assist J. Golden. Manager Art Stamp goes to Montreal to assist Dick Riddall. These four men, new to the league this year, have shown a keen interest in the boys welfare and it is hoped they become permanent members of the Little NHL staff.
