WHAT COUNCIL DID Conservation Plans May See Park, Dam Near Here

Activities of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority were fully reviewed by Alex MacLaren when he addressed council at their Monday meeting.

Mr. MacLaren, who is the town's representative on the Authority, particularly stressed the advantages of the Black Creek plan, which embraces a number of lagoons in the Credit Forks area. The plan comes under the Land Use and Farm Planning committee, of which he is chairman, and embraces such aids to farmers as crop rotation, soil erosion, contour plowing and reforestation.

The Authority comprises six committees, he said.

Use Six Pucks in Lions-Rotary Game

A six puck face off was just the first of numerous highly irregular occurrences last Sunday afternoon when the Georgetown Lions met the Rotary Club in a riotous imitation of Canada's national sport at the local arena.

The boys, decked out in comic costumes, put on a display like those tired old walls "had" never seen before, and for almost a full hour and a half ignored C.A.H.A. standards with such antics as putting the entire roster on the ice and even having a face off between the two goalies.

There were plenty of spills, bumps and Monday bruises in the struggle officiated by Referee Mayor John T. Armstrong and linesman Reeve Stan Allen, who incidentally had difficulty keeping tabs on the two teams due to the multitude of uniforms. The score which was of secondary importance was Lions 7 - Rotarians 5 and a return match between the two powerhouses has been hinted at.

The contest, which featured Ernie Alcott and Steamer Emmerson in the nets was well attended and can be taken as a fine exhibition of the public relations and sportsmanship that exists between the two organizations.

LIMEHOUSE MRS. JACK CRICHTON-CHURCH W.A. HEAD

We regret the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson and family from the village. They now live near Terra Cotta where they have bought a home.

The Albert Leferiak's visited Mr. and Mrs. Klooster at Ospringe on Friday.

Mrs. W. Wiley spent a few days with the A. C. Pattersons last week and on Sunday they and Mrs. Andrew Mino visited Mr. and Mrs. K. Turner and family at Orillia. Mrs. Wiley remaining for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith of Weston were with the Pattersons on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. C. Brown spent a couple of days in Hamilton last week.

The regular monthly and annual meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Mitchell on Tuesday afternoon. Former officers were re-instated as follows:

President, Mrs. Jack Crichton; vice president, Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Patterson; secretary, Miss W. Ivens.

Plans were made for a baking sale and euchre to be held in February at Limehouse Memorial Hall.
