ATTENTION GEORGETOWN HOUSEWIVES Only Frigidaire could give you all these "quality" features

· Let's you select any drying times with one .

Slide-out lint control drawer

 Satin smooth, all porcelain drying cylinder Optional power supply hook-up on either 110

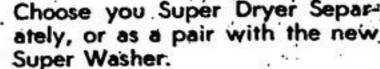

or 220 volts

 Automatic Safety Door Switch If you've a Wringer Washer, use this Dryer to dry clothes f-a-s-t

Features the famous Frigidaire Right-Angle Drying Principle

Warm air is directed through the clothes at right angles to the momore even drying.

 Only 3 gallons of hot water for a complete wash.

 Rub-Free Washing keep clothes new looking longer.

FORGET 17 DRIES CLOTHES

NEW FRIGIDAIRE SUPER DRYER

HAROLD C. McCLURE LIMITED

SET 17

OUTDOOR

FRESH

TR. 7-2522

Bottomley-Coles Wedding In St. Joseph' Acton

The wedding took place recently Angelicus, On this Day and O Lord in St. Joseph's R.C. Church Acton, when Mary Denise Coles became the bride of Terrence Bottomley. The bride, a member of the public school teaching staff in Acton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Coles, Brampton. Her father was an insurance agent in Georgetown before moving to Acton years ago. The groom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bottomley, of Bradford, England, is with the Royal Canadian Air Force stationed in MacDonald, Portage la

Father V. J. Morgan officiated at the wedding and Father R. Mac-Dougall celebrated the nuptial

Miss Irene Mulholland played the wedding music. Mrs. Gwen Da-

L.O.L. 245

REGULAR MEETING Tues., Feb. 12

at 8.00 p.m.

I.O.O.F. HALL Wesleyan Street

as I see it ...

INTERNATIONAL TRUCK

SALES & SERVICE

24 HR. TOWING

I Am Not Worthy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory brocaded satin, styled with a buttoned bodice, tiny pointed collar and lilypointed sleeves. The hooped skirt fell in a scalloped panel, the bustle back flowing into a chapel train. Her circular embroidered veil fel from an ivory satin headdress to shoulder length. She carried a small spray of white stephanotis with baby red roses.

Maid of honour was the bride' sister, Miss Pat Coles of Brampton, and Miss Cay Laughlin, of Guelph was bridesmaid. Both wore ballerina length gowns of blue and silver brocaded satin featuring large bows at the shoulder, feathered headdresses and matching shoes. vidson of Brampton sang Panis They carried red roses and white carnations.

A niece and nephew acter as the flower girl and page boy. Miss Marianne Coles wore an ivory taffeta dress with a scalloped lace bodice and skirt and lace headdress. She carried a nosegay of baby red roses and baby white carnations. Master Timothy Coles wore an ivory suit with a blue satin bow.

Hartley Coles, brother of the bride was groomsman, Ushers were Follows Oldham-Butt Vows Terry Coles, a brother and Billy MacColl, a cousin.

Wedding breakfast was served in mums and white snapdragons form- er of the groom wore a gown tiered wedding cake featured a mu- for the double ring ceremony of mauve orchids. sical top; the base was entwined Marilyn Elizabeth Butt, only daugh- The couple left for a honeymoon cial evening. with white tulle and blue bows.

trip to the northern United States. the soloist, Mr. Jack Harstone, who Norton Floral Store on Main Street. Wendy Saunders and Judy Bona-For travelling, the bride wore an sang The Lord's Prayer. avocodo wool jersey dress with a Given in marriage by her father. avocodo wool jersey dress with a bloused back and sheath skirt. Over. the bride wore a gown of suede-bloused back and sheath skirt. Over. finished satin peau-de-soie, fashioncessories included natural doeskin ed with drooped waist and hooped gloves and a hat banded in gold skirt extending into a slight train. Wins Lions with sequins and pearls. She wore The portrait neckline was trimmed with irridescent sequins and pearls a corsage of bronze mums.

Guests were present from Port and the long sleeves extended into Speaking Contest Huron, Michigan, Penetang, Toron- points on the hands. A tiara of irto, Guelph, Brampton and George- ridescent sequins and pearls held

WRONG NAME IN GLEN FIRE CALL

An item in fast week's Herald groom, was matron of honour. She giving an account of a fire at a wore a gown of Valentine red crys-Glen Williams home was in error tallette which featured a bertha in reporting that the house was owstyde collar and bouffant skirt. ned by Ernest Ellison. The item should have stated that the owner was Mr. L. Nelissen. Damage from their gowns were similar to that Since the end of World War 11 Muir (cousin of the bride) and Miss the Canadian steel industry has expanded more rapidly than the steel groom), wore gowns in adapted verindustry of any other major nation.

the blaze was almost negligible.

Other Merchants May Ask Monday Closing

ants Thursday in the Municipal hours uniform for all businesses.

to council the previous Monday sig- is a trend in the city plazas. the wording and a 2nd petition, has meeting. entation again to council.

the fingertip veil of silk tulle illusion. The bride carried a sunburst bouquet of gardenias and feathered carnations.

Honeymoon at Lake Placid

Possibility of other merchants the grocers' plan, others favoring it half holiday to Wednesday. joining in a change to Monday clo- and others expressing a willingness | Another merchant suggested discussed at a meeting of merch posed, in order to keep closing to see if the two towns could make

grocers are asking for a change in of those favouring the "status quo" | wouldn't. the store closing bylaw, which which sees stores closed for a The grocers agreed to withhold would allow them to be open all Thurday half-holiday, no one voted their petition to council for at least

Herald publisher Walter Biehn a good day in this line of business, Otherwise, it is probable that the was asked to act as chairman at and that merchants owe a responsi- grocers will proceed on their own Thursday's meeting. A variety of blity to the shopping public to and ask endorsement of their own opinion was expressed, some of maintain reasonable store hours. closing hours. those present definitely opposed to He suggested shifting the Thursday sing of Georgetown food stores was to join in, although personally op- meeting with Brampton merchants a simultaneous move.

One suggestion which met with A ballot vote was asked by the Representatives of twenty mer- favour from some merchants, but chairman, to get an expression of chandisizing establishments met to was opposed by some food men, opinion on how non-grocers presair their views on the question, af- was to have a Thursday open night ent would feel about the closing ter a petition had been presented as well as the present Friday. This change. Thirteen voted, seven of these intimating they would sign a ned by nine of eleven grocers. The When a show of hands was asked similar petition, and six that they day Thursday and require closing in favour, indicating that some a week, when it was indicated that all day Mondays. The petition was change in store hours is desired by some of those favouring the change held up because of technicalities in all merchants who attended the might circulate a petition this week. If an over-all majority is since been signed, ready for pres- A druggist objected to Monday found, it is likely that a joint presclosing, pointing out that this is entation will be made to council.

J. L. LAMBERT IS CHOIR PRESIDENT

The Church Wardens of St. George's Anglican Church sponsored a banquet and social evening for the members of the choir Standards of white chrysanthe-|corsage of rose orchids. The mothon Thursday, January 25th. The ladies of the Auxiliary catered the YMCA, which was decorated ed the background in Christ powder blue silk crepe with match- for the delicious turkey dinner. with pink and white streamers. The Church, Brampton, on January 26, ing accessories and a corsage of Choir members were invited to bring a friend along for the soter of, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. at Lake Placid and New York State. A short business meeting was Mrs. Coles chose for her daugh- Butt, Huttonville, and Ross Lind- the bride travelling in a dress of held to elect officers of the choir ter's marriage a dress of pink faille burgh Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. French brocaded peau-de-soie in for 1957. They are: Thomas taffeta with a collar of mink and a Arthur Oldham, R. R. 2, Norval. powder blue, with blue accessories Warnes, past president; J. L. Lampink shell hat. Her corsage was of Rev. C. Allan Johnson officiated, and a grey kid jacket. Mrs. Old- bert, president; Mrs. Fred Helson, and Mrs. W. E. Glenney played the ham is well known in Georgetown, secretary - treasurer; librarians. The bride and groom left on a wedding music and accompanied and is a former employee of the Jean Engleby, Carolyn Biehn, than. Thomas Warnes is robe master for the boys' junior choir and Miss Lena McNally robe mistress for the junior girls.

Members and friends had wonderful time with contests and dancing after the meeting.

PHILIPS TABLE RADIO

POWERFUL 5-TUBE RADIOS

Available in 6 Beautiful Colours WIGO'S SPECIAL SALE PRICE

YOUR TRADE *

★ Trade in radios don't need to be in working order, but should be in fairly good condition . . . We reserve the right to refuse radios not in reasonable condition.

WIGO TV & RADIO

Elizabeth Sloan will represent Georgetown in an oratorical contest being promoted by Lions

Clubs in various towns.

One of nine contestants Mrs. Bob May, sister of the spoke at the high school on Friday, her speech on "King Tut's Tomb" followed by an impromptu talk on "A Teacher's Meeting as I Imagine It" was judged best by The bridesmaids were Miss Nor-Principal J. L. Lambert, Nev. ma Hall and Miss Edith Messenger; Kenneth Richardson and Ganning, who were judges. John worn by the matron of honor. The Elliott was chairman and Lion junior bridesmalds - Miss Susan Chief Jim Jones assisted with the Bonnie Robinson (niece of the Miss Sloan will compete in the regional final in early March, the sions of the bridesmaids.' The atlocation for which has still to be tendants wore white feathered hats decided. If successful there, she and carried sunburst bouquets of may go on to a sub district final, C feathered white carnations; these and then to an Ontario-Quebec were designed and fashioned by the bride, who is a floral designer of Linda White placed second The flower girls, Deborrah Butt, and Carolyn Biehn third in Friwore a dress of white crystalette fa. day's contest. The winner reshioned on the same lines as the ceived a $10 cheque from the bridesmaid's dresses. She carried Lions Club, and the other two and wore a band of matching roses ceived $3.00 cheques, Pat Sykes, o 2 in her hair. The ringbearer, Gary Don Curry, Bob Matthews, David O.

The three prizewinners were

COOP - COOP

Free Chance for every 100 gallons of fuel oil purchased you will receive a ticket. At the end of each month, one lucky ticket will be drawn and winners will receive free 100 GALLONS OF FUEL OIL.

DECEMBER WINNER: MRS. A. McDONALD, R. R., TERRA COTTA

FUEL OIL

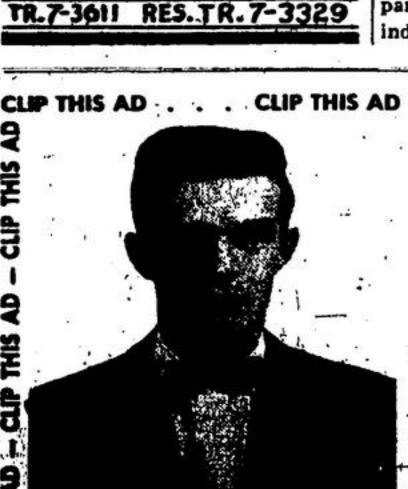

ON GUELPH STREET

FOR PROMPT, EFFICIENT YEAR-ROUND SERVICE

Halton Co-Operative Supplies

GEORGETOWN - MILTON

COOP - COOP

CLIP THIS AD Good For

Laundering 1 Shirt

Cleaning 3 Ties when presented with ONE SUIT OR EQUIVALENT

FOR DRY CLEANING Offer Good Till Feb. 14 1957 Only

19 MILL STREET (near Royal Bank)

GV SIHL 4113 with matching accessories, and a and the Territories have 2

This Advertisement is low, with the ring surrounded by Sproule.

renown in the district.

Lily-of-the-Valley. man, and the ushers were Mr. Roy last night at the McGibbon House Burney, Mr. Carl Oldham and Mr.

Following the ceremony, a recep-Huttonville. The mother of the a basket of red Sweetheart roses girls $5. Six other entrants re-Oldham, carried a white satin pil- Jones, Lois Niven and Sandra

Mr. John Coyne was the best guests at the Lions Club meeting

tion was held at the home of the Commons, the four Atlantic provbride's parents at Richlyn Farm, in inces have 33, uebec has 75, Ontabride received the guests in a gown rio 85, the three prairie provinces & 6 of rosewood Swiss peau de soje Chave 4, British Columbia Shas 22 Q