NORVAL, PALERMO HOCKEY PLAYOFFS

Palermo will now play the Norval Juniors for the Milton Milling trophy in a three out of five series, starting Monday, February 18, at 8.30 in the Milton arena.

There have been a lack of fans this year so let's get out and help the boys meet expenses. Incidentally, Norval and Palermo have met three times in the last four years, Norval winning all three. Action taking the championship the other year from Norval.

LIONS IN OAKVILLE FOR PRESENTATION

Several members of the Georgetown Lions Club travelled to Oakville last Thursday evening to take part in that club's Annual Visitation Night. About two hundred guests attended the dinner in the Pine Room of the Oakville Arena. Those from town were Clarence Kennedy, Clarence Heslop, Jim Turnbull, Jack Gunning, John Elliott and Harold Fobert.

A gentleman from the Halton and Peel Trust was the dinner speaker and his subject was the "importance of making a will". After the speaker the guests were wonderfully entertained by a comedian "Germann" who announced that he is scheduled to appear on the Ed. Sullivan Show very shortly. A girl vocalist and an acrobatic dancer were also on the program which the guests all enjoyed very much.

The General Electric had donated many prizes as lucky number draws but apparently Thursday was not a lucky day for the Georgetown Lions and they came home without any prizes.

RON DIXON

The high scoring line of Ron Dixon, Bud Varey and Blake Ingalls will try their luck Monday when Barrie Flyers Junior A team plays an exhibition match with the Raiders here. It is a benefit game for injured players and door prize is a $100 bond.
