Four Police Chase Stolen Car Suspect

Three members of the George town police force and an OPP officer had a busy night February 12 The action started on Guelph St. where Cst. Nelson Trafford started tailing a suspicion looking wehicle in the police cruiser at about 10:30 p.m. and it ended four hours later in the barn of Elmer Burt on the 7th line with the arrest of two youths who were later charged with car theft.

while making a routine check of the new B.A. service station and gave chase. The vehicle sped up despite hazardous road conditions and when almost opposite the home of Harry-Goldham at the eastern outksirts of town the car flipped over. The two youths in the vehicle fled on foot across the adjacent snow covered fields towards the CNR tracks.

Chief constable Roy Haley, Cst. Harley Lowe of the Georgetown police and Cst. George Moore of the Milton detachment OPP took TR. 7-3697 over where Cst. Trafford left off. Cst. Moore was called in when it was discovered that the car had been stolen from a garage at Embro, a small town near Woodstock policed by the Provincials.
