Book Radio Personalities For Easter Seal Dinner

CJBC announcers Ed Fitkin, Bruce Smith and Walter Bowles and possibly Whipper Billy Watson have been acquired by the Georgetown Rotary Club to speak at the annual Easter Seal dinner to be held on Monday, March 18th, it was disclosed at the third annual dinner meeting at Fairview Inn Monday.

An honoured guest at the meeting, District Governor Walter Degeer was introduced by Bill Carr. Mr. Degeer addressed the club on the origin of Rotary and was thanked by Bud Bishop.

Definite dates, April 23rd, 24th and 25th, were set for the minstrel show.

John Guan introduced new member John Ord to the club members. Visiting Rotarians included Tom Jones, Acton, Jack Clarke, Gord MacIntosh, and Dave Ritchie of Milton.

FAREWELL GIFTS FROM GOLF CLUB LADIES
 At an afternoon bridge party last week at North Halton Golf & Country Club, thirty ladies of the club made a presentation to Mrs. Jack Hart, who is moving to St. Catharines where her husband has been transferred as a Bank of Commerce manager.

Name Edwards Pro At Lakeview Club

Professional at North Halton Golf & Country Club for its first two seasons, Larry Edwards has been appointed pro at Lakeview Golf Course for this season.

The Lakeview course has been taken over by Toronto Township as a municipal course. Mr. Edwards was assistant to Gordie Brydson at Mississauga before coming to Georgetown.

INSTITUTE LADIES LEARN ABOUT SANDWICH MAKING
 An extension course offered by the Home Economics branch Dept. of Agriculture on sandwich making drew 75 ladies to St. John's Memorial Hall on March 4th. Doreen Croft showed a variety of ways to serve sandwiches, and the product of her handiwork was later served for lunch. Ladies of Georgetown's Women's Institute were hosts for the evening.

Institute Ladies Hear Story of "King and I"

Mrs. W. Gwizdala, 30 Henry St. played several recordings from The King and I and told the story of the play to ladies of Georgetown Women's Institute at their meeting in Knox Church auditorium last Wednesday.

Members answered roll call by naming their favourite hobby. A $5 prize was voted for the high school commencement and a $6.00 donation to Halton Music Festival. Mrs. Seward Wilson and Mrs. Bert Palmer were appointed a committee to look after entering a layette in the Salada contest.

The secretary was named to attend the Officers' Conference in Guelph May 9-10. A pot luck supper is being arranged for the April meeting.

Mrs. Albert Dolson gave the motto: Of all the things you wear, your expression is the most important. Mrs. Frank Petch moved a vote of thanks to the committees which arranged the extension course and the anniversary party in February.

Mrs. Harry Bailey and Mrs. Fred Armstrong conducted a penny sale. Mrs. Ernie Pearce expressed thanks of members to those who had arranged the program for the evening.

ENROL 15 LADIES IN GUIDE GROUP

At a recent meeting of the Local Association, a ladies' auxiliary formed to assist guides and brownies in their organization, fifteen ladies received their pins, emblematic of membership, from Mrs. Norman Marchment, district commissioner.

The meeting, which was held in the parish hall of St. George's Anglican Church, was attended by over twenty members. Coffee and sandwiches were served after the ceremony.
