COOKING SCHOOL DRAWS
600 LADIES, KNOX HALL

The ladies of Esqueping Agricultural Society, sponsors of Georgetown Fall Fair, held another successful cooking school in Knox Church Hall on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Six hundred ladies attended the school during the two nights which was arranged by Canada Packers Brenda York Cooking School. Miss Eileen Savings, home economist, whose home is in Thornbury, was in charge and delighted the ladies with her many fine tips on home cooking.

On Wednesday evening, Harold McClure emceed the school for the ladies and also supplied the stove and refrigerator for the school. Mrs. Don Lindsay, lady president of the society welcomed the guests each evening.

Thursday evening, Vince Mountford of Brampton was master of ceremonies and Miss Charlotte McCullough extended the thanks of the ladies to all who had made the school such a grand success.

The main door prize, a Sunbeam electric frying pan, donated by Harold C. McClure Ltd., was won by Mrs. Ken Allen, 6 Emery St. Second prize, a ham, went to Mrs. F. O'Flaherty, 171 Main N. and third prize, a set of mixing bowls to Mrs. A. S. Wilson, 17 Queen St. The Wednesday night door prize, a plastic clothes hanger, went to Mrs. Fred Masterman, and the Thursday night prize to Mrs. Doug Leslie, Hornby.

It was a coincidence when Spences Wilson, president of the men's section, drew his own ticket for the frying pan, and then generously turned it back to the ladies to be drawn for again.

MRS. VERN PICKET HOSTESS TO W.M.S.
The W.M.S. meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon, March 12th at the home of Mrs. Vern Pickett with president, Mrs. Leslie Giffen presiding and opening with the hymn "God of Grace and God of Glory". Roll Call was answered with a sentence prayer for the church. A lovely quilt was displayed which had been done by some of the ladies for the needy. A business discussion was followed by the Devotional taken by Mrs. T. Blackett based on "The Whole Armour of God" with Scripture reading by Mrs. H. Bird from Ephesians, 6th Chapter. Study chapter by Mrs. John Bell, body of the work being done in Burns and Thiland. She was assisted by Mrs. Ford-Wickson and Mrs. Frank Ruddell. Mrs. N. Russ had the prayer for our chosen missionary, Mrs. Joseph Wickson ded-

IGA
TEA for CANADA WEEK
MARCH 25th to 30th

Ever Been Caught Unprepared? A terrible feeling isn't it. Actually, we are pretty proud of our hospitality and if we simply can't whip up a snack for our guests we feel we've lost them—as friends for life, and we could just die of embarrassment—there are a few things extra nice to have around just in case—tea that is so easy to prepare it never interrupts pleasant conversation—some cookies to serve in a jiffy—maybe some sandwich spreads—party meats. This week-end why not look around your IGA store for those convenient little things that will make you the hostess at whose house neighbours would most like to meet.
