AT INSTITUTE MEETING Esquesing Women's Institutemeeting was held at Mrs. H. P. Lawson's home last week. The topic was Public Relations and roll call was help for retarded children. Mrs. L. DeVries and Mrs. C. A. Grant were hostesses for refreshments. Mrs. Fred Armstrong and Mrs. Bob Lawson exhibited the work of the 4-H Girls' Club - a model of a girl's room and all its furnishings. April is the annual meeting and Mrs. DeVries will be hostess. Payment of dues will be the roll call and members - will have a pot luck supper.

Junior W.A. meeting was held tf at Mrs. Baily's home. Shirley Greenwood chose "From Ocean unto Ocean" for the opening hymn. The girls have been learning 'What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and it was sung right through, followed by a prayer service conducted by Shirley. The Saturday pledge was presented: the missionaries' children whom the junior branch help to educate. A quilt was tied during the busy period and the meeting closed with the vesper and
