SEDORE — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Carl Sedore, who died April 22nd, 1956. One year has passed, dear Carl, since you were called away. How well do we remember that sad and weary day. You suffered much, you murmured not.
We watched you day by day; We cried and prayed that your dear life would not be taken away.

But I will remember, no matter how long.

Many Local Voices on Cross-Section Radio Show

An interesting broadcast wove local people from their TV back to radio last Thursday night to hear the CBC Cross Section program. Titled "Town in Transition" it was a documentary, compiled by Mrs. J. C. Shaw, 10 Market Street, who was commentator for a story generously interspersed with tape recorded opinions assembled from a large number of local residents. The program was designed to show how a town like Georgetown feels as it is converted from a "small town" into a much larger one. All shades of opinion were expressed — those who liked the town-the-way-it was and those who for the better, the problems which growth brings to various municipal departments; the feelings of farmers who sold their land for urban development. Voices on the program were not identified by name. Listeners heard among others, Mayor Jack Armstrong, police chief Roy Haley, Planning Consultant Dr. E. G. Falud, developer Rex Heslop, former town clerk John D. Kelly and Planning Board Chairman Edwin Wilson. Others whose voices were identifiable to the listener included Rev. Morgan McFarlane of St. John's United; William Kinrade, principal of Wigglesworth School, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Sinclair, whose former farms are now in the Del-rex subdivision; S. W. Orr, whose former farm property is now a housing subdivision; Main St. merchants Sid Silver and Henry Senko; Bruce Harding and Jim Valentine.

Tanhardt Dog Qualifies C.D. Award at Show

Tanya de Grassi, purebred German Shepherd from Tanhardt Kennels, Silvercreek, won honour last Saturday at the Niagara Falls, N.Y. Kennel Club Show by successfully qualifying for the C.D. (Companion Dog) award. Companion Dog is a title awarded for obedience. She also qualified for C.D. at the Buffalo Dog Show on Sunday, and is now an International C.D. Tanhardt Kennels are owned by Miss Laura Treble, Silvercreek. Also at the Niagara Falls Show, Miss Treble showed a puppy, Tanhardt's Blitz, daughter of Tanya. She won in the Puppy Class at Niagara, and also placed 4th in the Senior Puppy Class in Buffalo. The Buffalo Show was a big special one with 128 entries and one of the top American judges. This was the first time the puppy had been "shown."
