Ballinafad Eleven Charter Members at 30th W.A. Birthday

An interesting birthday was celebrated at the church on Friday night. It was the thirtieth anniversary of the organization of the Women's Association, and Mrs. D. A. Russell the first president presided for the first of the evening and she asked Mrs. Robert McEnery, the first secretary to read the minutes of the original meeting and eleven of the original members answered the roll call. They were Misses Beatrice, Hilts, Kate MacKay, Mrs. F. W. Shortill, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. R. McEnery, Mrs. D. A. Russell, Mrs. Mary Swindiehurst, Mrs. Henry Hilts, Mrs. C. Beswick, Mrs. Annie Vannatter, and Mrs. McClure. A memorial service was conducted by Mrs. T. Given and Mrs. Marshall placed a carnation for each of the nineteen members who had passed on since 1927. Those who contributed to the program for the evening were Eileen and Ernie McEnery, Alma Sinclair and Mr. Neelon and Fred Shortill sang "Memories" especially for the occasion. Readings were also given by Mrs. R. McEnery, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Wallace of Campbellville. The ladies of the Evening Auxiliary served lunch and a birthday cake with 30 lighted candles.

The W.A. met for their regular meeting at the home of their president, Mrs. Robert McEnery on Tuesday of last week. There was the usual business and Mrs. Smith gave a reading and a contest was conducted by Mrs. Edmunds. Plans were discussed for the birthday party and a booth at Wame's sale.

The Evening Auxiliary met on Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Maurice Baker with 14 members present. The roll call was answered by Easter thoughts and Mrs. Clarence Snow conducted the worship service. Mrs. Black gave a report of an address given by Mrs. McKillop, dominion board president at the Presbyterian in Georgetown recently. Mrs. Neelon showed a film strip entitled "Let's Visit Korea Now." In place of their usual sing song, the group practised the music for the Easter Thanksgiving to be held on April 28th, Sunday evening and he meeting closed with the benediction.

Those who attended the Sinclair-Thorpe wedding in Dublin United Church in Guelph on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery. Miss Beth McEnery was the bridesmaid and Mr. George Gibson was an usher.

Congratulations to Brian Sinclair who did so well in the music festival. He went into the finals last Friday and although he didn't win, he was only one point from the bronze medal.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smellie of Fergus are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Black and family. Mrs. Clayton Bewick of Hamilton has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Donald McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery and family visited with friends in Campbellville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mack and Tommy of Orangeville visited with Mr. Tom Mack on Sunday. Mr. Mack's son is in the real estate business and has recently bought a house in the city.
