LEGION NOTES
(last week)
by Les Clark
We have very little local news this week, other than a report given us by Ed McDermott, and one that we'll hold back till next week to see if we can get some other sports results as well.
However, we have a report of the regular monthly meeting, that was held last Thursday evening.
The meeting opened with the usual opening ceremonies, with president Garvin in the chair, and the secretary and treasurer in their respective places. Reports of the various committees were given, by the chairmen. All reports were excellent ones. The treasurer gave a report on the branch finances, and they were shown to be in excellent shape.
A number of donations were given, and the rooms were given to the Georgetown Raiders hockey club, for a Friday night, to be announced later, in recognition of the Ontario championship they had taken, this past season. This was passed. A notice of motion regarding mileage for cars proceeding on branch business and activities was also carried, setting a standard rate for all. A report was given showing that the Legion had had a very successful bingo in aid of the Hospital Committee. Also it was reported that the fireworks in the park on Victoria Day had been a great success, even with inclement weather. It was estimated to have been at least 2,500 people at the event.
Cars were arranged for the coming parade at Acton, and also for the zone election at Brampton.
The draw was made for $30, and was won by Nick Carter, who is a long-time member. Almost 150 were present at the meeting.
After closing ceremonies, some cheese and crackers were served by the entertainment chairman and his committee.
The zone meeting and election of officers was held last Sunday at Major Dwight Sharpe branch, in Brampton. The occasion was the annual meeting and election.
The meeting started promptly at 2:30 p.m., with the chairman, Charlie Rank, opening the meeting and turning over the gavel to the zone commander, who introduced Hugh Lamb, and first vice president Fred O'Brecht of Durham. He spoke briefly outlining the newest campaign of the Legion, to will your eyes to an eye bank, so that they might be used to save other people's sight after your death. He also complimented the zone on its affairs.
As this was the annual election, Com. O'Brecht conducted an election for zone commander, with Les Clark being elected for a second two year term. His deputy commander will be Bob Hadden, of Oakville branch. Also elected was Earl Holmes, sports chairman. The deputy was left over to the zone sports meeting in Acton, next Sunday, and the poppy chairmanship will be carried on for the balance of the term, and it was left to the zone commander to appoint one if necessary at that time or the next zone meeting.
Financial reports, properly audited were given by the zone secretary H. M. Timbers, and the zone sports officer. These were well received. Mention was made of the possibility of publishing a small paper from time to time. This will be looked into.
It was decided to give the usual donations for the public speaking winners from Milton who competed at Port Colborne.
As the zone had attended a dedication at Brampton, before the meeting, the meeting was closed at an early hour, and some business left over until the next one.
The zone commander thanked all the comrades for their wonderful support, said he liked the job and would try and serve all his branches to the best of his ability.

The Brampton branch held a dedication parade and ceremony at 1:30 in the Brampton Arena. The plaque was officially hung in the arena in memory of the men, who did not return. There were representatives of the council, and various other groups, as well as branches from the zone, and members of the W.A. Warden Carman Core officiated, and introductions were made by Mayor Nance Horwood. In charge of arrangements was past zone commander Art Horsney.
Brampton Branch entertained the visiting Legion officers at a luncheon Sunday afternoon. Present were First Vice President and Mrs. Fred O'Brecht, zone commander and Mrs. Leslie Clark, district commander Hugh Lamb, Mayor Nance Horwood, Warden Carman Core, and Rev. Jack McDermott, as well as Brampton officers and a number of the W.A. Brampton W.A. catered for the beautiful meal, and Mrs. O'Brecht, and Mrs. Clark and Lamb were presented with a dozen of Dale's autographed roses by the host branch.
VOTE NEXT MONDAY
Vote as you like... but Vote! is the slogan next Monday when you have a choice of three candidates seeking to be Halton's next federal member of parliament.

DO YOUR OWN THINKING
On June 10th the people of Canada will elect the Federal Government for the next four or five years.
I cannot help but wonder if the people realize the power and responsibility they place in the hands of those they elect.
Too often people do not use their vote at all, others vote because a friend or someone has told them they should vote for a certain person.
This is not because the average man or woman hasn't the intelligence to make up their own mind, so many are just too lazy to do their own thinking.
If only people would realize how much they have at stake they would really be jolted out of their apathy.
I do not presume to tell people HOW they should vote, only WHY!
The government in power can and do introduce measures that affect every phase of our lives every day, every man, woman and child in Canada is affected; not only for the four or five years the government is in office but for many years after.
In effect, we place our lives in their hands.
Is it not worthwhile and wise to think seriously about the people to whom we delegate such power?
May I suggest that in the next few days those eligible to vote secure all possible information on the policies of those seeking that vote.
Usually past performances over a reasonable length of time will point the way of future trend.
By all means "VOTE AS YOU LIKE" but do your OWN THINKING first and be sure you have evaluated all factors concerning the party and person for whom you vote.

Twenty Halton Steers Queen's Guinea Entries
J. E. W.
The Queen's Guinea class at the Royal Winter Fair is always a highlight of that outstanding livestock show. Since the inauguration of the Queen's Guinea Class, Halton has had two Queen's Guinea winners, namely Duncan Campbell of Moffat, and Katherine Mery of Milton.
Twenty Halton 4-H club members have signified their intention of competing in this class at the 1957 Royal. Under the supervision of J. Allan Francis and local leaders, all 20 of the steers were weighed prior to May 15th. The regulations require that steers in order to be eligible must make an average daily gain of 1 1/4 lbs. per day during the five months feeding period.

HOLSTEIN TWILIGHT MEET

J. E. W.
While Halton County is daily getting smaller agriculturally, there are still more Holstein breeders in Halton than there was in the whole of Canada fifty years ago." This was the statement of J. A. Carroll in his address on May 17 at the twilight meeting of the Halton Holstein Club held in Hayes Sales Arena, near Trafalgar. In support of his statement, Mr. Carroll pointed out that in 1906 there were only 288 Holstein breeders in Canada, whereas Halton, despite recent farm real estate activity, still has 291 Holstein breeders.
Mr. Carroll, former assistant deputy minister of agriculture for Ontario, and now Peel County manager of the Halton and Peel Trust and Savings Co., delighted his audience with his thought provoking message.
Geo. F. Drennan, Holstein fieldman for West Central Ontario, as usual did an able job on the livestock section of the programme. Some 250 participated in the judging and grading competitions. Here the winners were as follows:
Men's section, Howard McNish from Ohio; Ladies section, Miss Kaye Marshall; 4-H Club members under 16 years, Bruce Pewtress; 4-H Club members 16 years and over, Jack Robertson.
J. A. Francis, associate agricultural representative for Halton and Peel counties, was in charge of the 4-H Club members meeting, where the 62 members of Halton's two dairy calf clubs were in attendance.
The event was one of the most successful of any staged over the years by the Halton Club and the ideal facilities provided by Hayes Limited contribute not a little to the success of this annual event.

Businesswomen Plan
Installation of Officers
The monthly meeting of the Georgetown Business & Professional Women's Club, was held May 27th at the Jack-O-Lantern. A good attendance was on hand for the election of officers for the 57-58 season, who will be installed at the June meeting.
From the Games Night proceeds a donation was sent to the Elizabeth Fry Society, Toronto, and also to the United Nations. The sale of tickets on a portable TV realized the sum of $107.20 to be sent to U.N.I.C.E.F. It is the hope of the club to be able to further their donation later in the year.
Mrs. Win Wallace was appointed as representative to go to the Fall convention to be held in Ottawa this October. Also several of the members plan to attend.
The club was very pleased to have as guest speaker, Mrs. O. Brewster. Having lived some years in India, she was able to give a very enlightening talk on the lives and habits of these people. Living conditions are very outmoded and life, in general leaves a great deal to be desired. As an example the average wage of a worker in India is about three dollars a month, and one of their staple foods, rice, costs about 25¢ a pound. Hence in a land of so many it is not hard to understand the hunger and poverty that exists.
Thinking about the way these people must live, it is good to know that organizations such as UNICEF are able to give some assistance to their domestic and medical needs.
Perhaps in later years with help and teachings these people will be able to better their standards of living. For to them we in such countries as Canada, must live in a land of plenty.
