WHAT COUNCIL DID

ENGAGE BANKERS' BOND TO SELL $220,000 DEBENTURES

A $220,000 Georgetown debenture issue, pending for some time, will be marketed shortly under the guidance of Bankers' Bond Corporation, a company closely associated with the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mr. Milson of that company discussed the financing with council at its meeting, last Wednesday, presented a brief prepared after a recent visit to town by company officials. "You are not alone in your problems," he said, referring to a depressed market for municipal debentures which has stalled major construction in most Canadian municipalities. The market for short-term 10 year debentures, of which Georgetown has $130,000 is practically non-existent among large buyers, he said. Companies are seeking longer term uses for their capital at current high interest rates, he said, and his company anticipates no trouble in selling $220,000 debentures with a 20 year expiration. Bankers Bond was appointed the town's fiscal agent for the balance of this year. It will be entrusted with marketing the $220,000 in bonds which bear an interest rate of 6 1/2% and will receive a commission of 1 1/2% per cent on all sales made. The company offered its help in selling $130,000 in 6 per cent, 10 year debentures locally and will charge no commission for its work unless it makes sales in large blocks of these.

LIMEHOUSE Communion services will be observed in Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday.
