

Odd Fellows And Rebekahs Hold Church Parade, Grave Decoration

Sunday, June 23rd, the members of Odion Odd Fellows Lodge and Verdun Rebekah Lodge paid homage to their members who had died in their annual Grave Decoration service. The parade to Greenwood Cemetery was led by the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band. The Odd Fellows marched from the hall on Wesleyan Street and were joined by the Rebekahs on King Street. At Greenwood the graves of brothers and sisters were decorated and a service of benediction was held. The Noble Grand, Carey Gibbs, and the Noble Master, William Gibbs, and the chaplains Mel Tumblyn and Mrs. Peggy Wylie conducted the service. Euseb was the Tie that Binds was the memorial hymn.

Sunday evening the annual church service for both lodges was held in St. John's United Church. The parade was again led by the Girls' Pipe Band from the hall to the church. Mr. Bernard Shrubsole was at the organ and Miss Sandra Scott was the soloist. The chaplains again took part in the service, Mel Tumblyn reading Psalm 121 which was read responsively and Mrs. Wylie read the New Testament lesson, St. Luke 10: 25-37.

BOOE BUFEET SUPPER AT MRS. D. CHARLES

Mrs. Denney Charles was hostess to the BOOE at a buffet supper in her home, R. R. 3, Georgetown, last Thursday evening. It was the closing meeting of the season and about twenty five members were present.

Mrs. Percy Leslie, Regent, presided at the meeting which followed the buffet. Ruth Evans reported on the sale of clothing which had been forwarded to the adopted Northern School.

Mrs. R. F. Gillis and Mrs. R. Jones were conveners for the Blind Canvass held recently in town and reported that $955.35 had been collected by the members who had comprised the canvass team. The annual donation to the Georgetown Public Library of $20 for the purchase of books was made. The members will sell Christmas cards again this year. The next meeting in September will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Lockhart Royal, Norval. Mrs. Sam Mackenzie thanked Mrs. Charles for her hospitality. The committee assisting Mrs. Charles were Mrs. R. Reichardt, Mrs. Ivan Hay, Mrs. Garfield McGilvray and Margery Mackenzie.

HORNBY

United Church Picnic in Community Park

Hornby United Church and Sunday School held their annual picnic on Saturday evening in the Hornby Community Park with nearly one hundred persons present. Everyone enjoyed the picnic supper that was supplied by the ladies. A ball game was played and then games and races were enjoyed by young and old. Mr. Milton Brown gave a presentation speech, then Mr. Harold Learmont presented Mr. and Mrs. Norman Russ with two wool blankets and their two children received gifts too from the church people.

Birthday greetings to Eileen Bradley who was nine years old on June 24th.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellis on their 8th wedding anniversary on June 24th.

A shower was given by neighbors and friends for Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, the former Jean Eyles, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price on June 19th in the evening with twenty-two ladies present. Mrs. Brown received many lovely and useful gifts and after she gave her thank you wishes Mrs. Price served tea and a lovely lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Leslie and family and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden and family spent Sunday at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Sampson and Mr. John Wilson spent the week end at Port Elgin with Mr. and Mrs. W. Topham.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drewbrook are leaving this week for their cottage up north and then they are taking a trip to Europe. They plan to return home in November.

Little Karen Bradley passed out from the heat while playing last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross spent the week end in Detroit visiting with relatives.

Mr. James Hoey, R.R. 1 Hornby, who has been raising racing Homer pigeons for quite a few years, entered eight of his birds in the East Coast pigeon race on Saturday, June 22nd. The pigeons were taken to Three Rivers, Quebec, fed, watered and then released for their flight at 7 a.m. and arrived at his home in Hornby the same day at 7 seconds to seven p.m. It was a distance of four hundred and three miles, ten hundred and ten yards. One of his birds came in first. Two of Mr. Hoey's birds from Oakville, that were in the same race came in second and third, next to Mr. Hoey's. This coming week Mr. Hoey is entering some of his birds in a 500-mile race from Bala St. Paul, Quebec to his home. Two of the birds did not arrive home, but Mr. Hoey believes they will unless they have come to some harm.

The Hornby Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. C. McDowell on Tuesday, June 18th, with a fair attendance despite the very hot weather. Mrs. R. King, president, was in the chair and opened the meeting with everyone repeating the ode and Mary Stewart collect. Mrs. Brain, secretary, gave her report and read the correspondence. A letter from Mrs. Borgstrom announced the girls' club achievement day is to be held on July 6th in the agricultural hall. The director Mrs. L. Sampson gave a report of the district annual held in Ballinacraig and Mrs. C. Wrigglesworth gave a report of the TB banquet and meeting. Mrs. F. Chisholm introduced Mrs. Babcock of Milton who gave a most interesting demonstration on a printing machine. Mrs. McDowell expressed the thanks of the ladies to Mrs. Babcock. In the absence of Mrs. Stan May, her daughter Martha showed a number of lovely slides taken in this district, as well as some taken in New York State. Mrs. Sampson thanked Martha for showing the pictures. The meeting closed with the Queen and the tea cups. Mrs. F. Brain, Mrs. J. McCarron and Mrs. C. Riddall assisted the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Learmont of Grimby visited with their family over the week-end in Hornby.

Miss Edna Fieldhouse visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Learmont and Mr. and Mrs. George Learmont over the week-end.

BALLINAFAD

Church Has Picnic At Waterfall Playground

Mrs. F. J. Shortill was hostess to the Evening Auxiliary on Thursday of last week. The devotional was taken by Mrs. McLaughlin who chose as her theme, "Seeds" and following an appropriate scripture reading, the hymn "This is our Father's World" was sung. After readings by the Stewardship and Citizenship secretaries and reports from the missionary monthly, a fine demonstration of floral arrangements was shown by Mrs. Bradshaw of Georgetown. In keeping with the theme of the meeting, the roll call was answered by the exchanging of plants.

The Women's Association also met last week at the home of Mrs. Edmunds on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Robert McEnery taking the devotional period. Plans were made for a strawberry tea to be held on July 3rd. The ladies of this group along with several other friends from the community also enjoyed a bus trip on Thursday. They left Acton around nine o'clock in the morning and journeyed to Oshawa where they toured the General Motors plant and also visited one of E. P. Taylor's farms and had dinner at the Y.W.C.A. On their way through Toronto they visited the Allan Gardens and passed Malton airport on their way home.

The annual Sunday School and congregational picnic of Ballinacraig Church was enjoyed at the waterfall playground on Saturday afternoon. Dinner was served about one o'clock and many of the children took advantage of the swimming facilities and races were also enjoyed by the younger folk. On Sunday morning Rev. Adams was in charge of the service. Those who joined the church by profession of faith were Misses Dorna Smith and Jean Lawr and Mrs. T. E. Smith, and by letter from other congregations, Miss Kate McKay and Mr. T. E. Smith. Mr. Neelon was in Acton in the morning at the two services there and in the evening he conducted the annual church service of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, Grand Lodge of Ontario.

Miss Adriane Gilbert and Mr. Jerry Holmes of Dundas and Hamilton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Neelon over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith and family spent Sunday in Fergus with Mr. Smith's mother.

Quite a number from this community attended the funeral service of Mrs. Kerr on Sunday afternoon at Churchhill.

Word was received this week of the passing of Mrs. Frank Binnie in Lindsay. Mrs. Binnie was Johanne Ferguson and lived in the village here until she was married and then went to live on the 9th Line.

Organist Gordon Jeffery Recital At St. George's

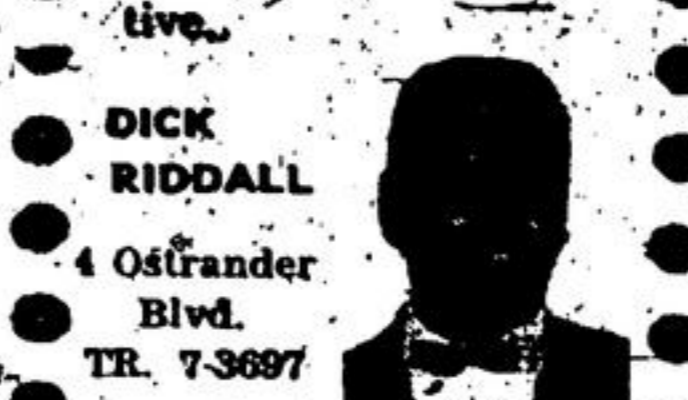

Final of a series of three recitals to introduce the new pipe organ in St. George's Anglican Church is planned tonight, when Gordon Jeffery, president of the will be the visiting artist. Mr. Jeffery, a native of London, began his organ training with Dr. Charles Poaker, Toronto, while attending law school at Osgoode Hall and later studied under Ernest White in New York. He is conductor of the London Chamber Orchestra and founder of the Bach Festival which for nine years has attracted visitors from a wide area for a week-end series of concerts.

Last Wednesday's concert was played by Catharine Palmer, organist at Holy Trinity Church, Toronto, who trained at the Royal Academy of Music in England, won the Turpin Prize and was the first Canadian woman to obtain her fellowship at the college. The previous week, John Cook, organist at St. Paul's Cathedral, London presented the first recital. Mr. Cook has composed music for production at the Stratford Shakespearean Festival and has written music for organ and church choir. He played one of his own compositions, Allegro Glucoso.

Tonight, as at the other recitals, an invitation has been extended to the public to attend. A social hour is planned afterwards in the parish hall.
