GLEN WILLIAMS

FATHER, SON BANQUET FOR GLEN WILLIAMS CUBS
The Cubs look their fathers to dinner on Monday evening, June 24th in St. Alban's parish hall, in Glen Williams. Rev. Kenneth Harwardson asked the Grace. Cub George Young proposed the toast to the Queen. Roy Norton Jr. acted as chairman for the evening and the head table was introduced by Henry Lorrman.
Scully Vic Gunn introduced the guest speaker C. V. Nunn from the Provincial Headquarters who gave an illustrated address on different types of knots, using the cub promise and law as a basis of his address. Stressing Loyalty to God, Duty to Country and helping others at all times, not only to do one good deed a day but stated that there may be a good many good deeds a day. Mrs. Leslie Young thanked the ladies, for catering to the lovely banquet.
GRADUATION CEREMONIES FOR THREE LOCAL GIRLS
Recent graduation ceremonies at two Toronto schools were of particular local interest.
