

Klaus Stever, Evelyn Course Hornby Wedding Principals

Social and Personal

St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby, was decorated with yellow roses and blue cornflowers on Saturday, July 20th, 1957, when Evelyn Ruth Course, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Course, Hornby, became the bride of Klaus Magnus Stever, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Stever of Germany. Rev. James E. Maxwell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Helen Hall, Little Britain, is visiting with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris. Mr. and Mrs. David Dobbie of Perth are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown, Victoria Street.

Mr. Course gave his daughter in marriage, Mr. Richard Course acted as groomsmen and Mr. Frank Crawford and Mr. James Ingram were ushers.

The bride was gowned in a floor length white nylon over net and taffeta gown and she carried a cascade of yellow Queen Elizabeth roses. Dorothy Course was her sister's attendant gowned in a floor length crystal gown of her romantic blue with matching headress.

The wedding reception was held in the church hall. For travelling the bride wore an ensemble of gold tulle with white taffeta trim and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Stever was a teacher at Nelson Township School Area, and the groom is employed at the Cancer Research Laboratories, Toronto.

Many people from Georgetown and vicinity have been included among recent guests at Valley View Cabins, Huntsville, which is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hunter of town. Prizes, Treats, Pony Rides Attract Crowd Garage Opening Herkes and Raycroft Motors made it official last week-end when they staged their grand opening on their lot at 51 Guelph St. with a celebration that resembled a preview of the Georgetown Fall Fair.

The opening day program included pony rides, the Brampton clown bands, guessing contests, a lucky draw, and free gifts of balloons, suckers and cakes for the kiddies and roses for the Ladies. Men attending were given free cans of machine oil by the uniformed attendants Marg Bingham, Dorothy Gates, and Mrs. Bert Carey.

The owners, John "Scotty" Herkes and Bill Raycroft purchased Bowers Motors Sales and are continuing as dealers for Chrysler, Plymouth and Fargo trucks and will handle imported Esso products. Scotty Herkes, who recently moved to his new home on Orchard Blvd., hails from Edinburgh, Scotland, served with the British Army, and came to Canada in 1948. He has been employed at Orinda engines and the Dixie Cup Company and prior to his venture here operated a service station in Brampton. His uncle Andrew Herkes was police chief in Brampton for many years. Married, he has one son, John, age seven years.

Bill Raycroft is a native of Burlington and has also recently become a Georgetown citizen residing with his wife on Parkview Blvd. An experienced businessman he was a district sales representative with a large oil company.
