THE LORNE SCOTS (P.M., Dufferin and Halton Regiment) has returned from a week's training at Niagara Summer Camp. Seen in photo 1 is the Lorne Scots Drill team under Sgt. Bill Hardman, Georgetown. Picture 2 shows Cpl. Victor Bird, Streetsville, getting a helping hand from Cpl. Doug Pearson, Fort Credit, as he dons his new green doublet. Privates Norm Bailey, Lloyd Reibson and Tom Fox, all of Brampton, are seen in 3 as they take anti-tank weapon training on the 75mm recoilless rifle. 4. Honored by officers of the Regiment who presented them with silver trays marking long service, ex-Rifles Sergeant-Major Ted Ching, Brampton, with 33 years service, congratulates Maj. Chas. Donaldson, Brampton on his 40 years in the Army. Group of officers seen in 5 attended the dinner at which Lt. Col. Ching and Maj. Donaldson were feted. Left to right, front row are Col. R. V. Conover, Brampton; Lt. Col. G. L. Casady, Halleybury; Col. E. G. Pullin, Oakville; back row, Lt. Col. C. T. Sharpe, Etobicoke, Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment; Lt. Col. R. Barber, Georgetown; Lt. Col. V. G. H. Phillips, Shelburne, and the present Commanding Officer, Lt. Col. S. R. Charters, Brampton. In 6 Major Donaldson appears puzzled by the oversized "medal" specially prepared for him and presented in jocular fashion by the junior officers.
