Pro Sets Another High New Course Record - 32

North Halton Golf Club pro Russ Kelly dropped the course record another notch over the week-end with his four under par 32 carded Sunday morning while playing in a foursome with Jack Malcolm, Ted Bludd and Dr. Jack Kerby.

The nine hole score broke his own mark of 33 set last week-end, and coupled with a previous round 38 enabled him to equal his own eighteen hole record 70 for the second time.

The club pro started to get hot around the end of the first round. His 4 on the par five ninth gave him an amazing five birdies from the ninth to eighteenth. Here is how it went on that scorching final nine.

BALLINAFAD

SET 30 MILE SPEED LIMIT IN VILLAGE

We wish to thank the "powers that be" through the medium of this column for placing a 30 mile speed limit sign at the entrance to Ballinafad from the south. If it is enforced, it will certainly improve the traffic menace through our village. A bad accident occurred early Sunday morning about a mile above the town line when two cars crashed head on. One man was taken to Guelph hospital by ambulance.

A number of ladies from the village enjoyed an outing last Wednesday when the Institute travelled by bus to visit the Wellington County Historical museum at Elora and had a picnic supper in the new park there.
