ment was in Greenwood Cemetery.

MEMORIALS
DICKENSON — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Stanley Dickenson who died while serving overseas with the Canadian Army, August 28th, 1944.
No day dawns, no night returns,
But we remember thee.
—Ever remembered by mother and father, brother and sisters.

DICKENSON — In loving memory of Pte. Harry Dickenson, Royal Regiment of Canada, who died August 21st after Dieppe.
—Always remembered by mother and family.

SCOTT — In loving memory of John R. Scott, who died August 18th, 1946.
The month of August is here,
To us, the saddest of the year, The blow was hard, the shock severe.
To part with one we loved so dear, Dearest still as years depart Your memory lives within our hearts.
With tender love and deep regret We who loved you will never forget.
—Sadly missed by his wife and family.

CARDS OF THANKS
EMMERSON — I would like to thank all my friends, neighbors, and relatives for cards, flowers and gifts sent me while I was a patient in hospital and since returning home. Thanks so much.
— Mrs. John Emmerison.

near Montreal, Que. On the way down they visited the "old" and "new" Troquois, the old town being demolished to make way for the St. Lawrence Seaway. The old town site is like a ghost town and the new one a mixture of new houses replacing old ones that could not be moved and old ones that were so constructed they could be moved. They returned home via the Ottawa route.

Dr. Edwin Heath Noted
Hypnotist Plays Roxy
All Next Week

It is slightly unusual to hear a neat, well-mannered girl answer a gentleman's polite question with a snappy "Shut up", however, even stranger things will be soon taking place on the Roxy Theatre stage when Dr. Edwin Heath gives his brilliant Hypnotic Party.

The slim, wiry, moustached man of thirty-five, doesn't look like a person gifted with extra-ordinary powers. A suave, charming, personality, elegant gestures, and yet a snap of his fingers and muscular gentlemen jump up to try themselves as ballerinas; a stamp of his foot and two people demand peanuts at the top of their voices, following the orders Dr. Heath gave them after putting them to hypnotic sleep.

"Hypnosis," Heath says, "is a condition into which any normal, intelligent person can be placed.
It is nothing to fear, but, on the contrary, is an extremely agreeable sensation of profound rest and relaxation, unless the subject is attempting to resist, which may develop a sense of frustration and consequent unpleasantness."

Dr. Heath, a native of London England, started his career as a hypnotist while serving in the army during World War II. Camp life and the soldiers' desire for entertainment provided an abundant opportunity to improve his skills.

A true master of his art, Dr.
Heath amazes the audience with his speed and naturalness. He creates amusement but he doesn't offend good taste.

He will be on stage at the Roxy every night next week at 8 p.m., as an added attraction, in addition to the showing of a movie.

THE MAIL BAG

PITHY COMMENTS FROM
THE OLD OBSERVER

Georgetown, Ont.
August 19, 1957

Dear Mr. Editor:

What has happened our Paper?
It used to be two sections, now only one. And there is always that "I want the paper first" and with two sections everyone is happy.

Well, so much for the paper, here is the title of my next episode ... "It made me Smile." It took 4 stalwart policemen and 9 civilians to capture one poor little 17 year old fugitive.

Now, for my last bit. We see where water is running low and we must return to the Silvercreek basin. Is the river going dry? And the iron bandits is the last straw.
Oh, you are a gra-a-and bunch of planners, you councillors. Why not step down and give the high school boys a chance, eh?

And how maybe we will get two sections of paper next week.

In case anyone wants to shoot me, I will sign my own name, M.
M. Taylor, but you will have to hunt me down with your blood dog to find out where I live in this fast growing town. — The Old Ob-
