MEMORIALS
BAILEY — In loving memory of our beloved son Clive Bailey who died August 30th, 1941. — Mum and Dad.

FRY — In loving memory of my dear husband, John Fry, who passed away August 28th, 1956. I little knew when I woke that morn.

The sorrow the day would bring. The call was sudden, the shock severe. To part with one I loved so dear. Sometimes it's hard to understand. Why some things have to be. But in his wisdom God has planned Beyond our power to see. God gave me strength to fight it. And courage to hear the blow. But what it cost to lose you. No one will ever know. — Too dearly loved to be forgotten by your loving wife Lillie.

FRY — In loving memory of a dear dad, John Fry, who passed away August 28th, 1956. We lost a dad with a heart of gold. Who was more to us than wealth untold. Without a farewell he fell asleep. With only memories for us to keep. We have lost but God has gained. One of the best Dads the world contained. — Lovingly remembered by son Jack, daughter-in-law Gertie, son Joe and daughter-in-law Doreen.

FRY — In loving memory of our dear grandad, John Fry, who passed away August 28th, 1956. Though we were small, dear

Grandad,
And our memories are few,
But those we never can forget,
Are the ones we have of you.
— Lovingly remembered by the grandchildren, Robbie, Karen, Kenneth and Jimmie.

FRY — In loving memory of John Fry who died August 28th, 1956. What would we give if we could say
Hello Jack, in the same old way,
For swiftly and silently came the call
And without goodbye you left us all.
You were always so good, unselfish and kind,
Few on this earth your equal we will find,
Beside your grave we often stand,
Our hearts are crushed and sore,
Yet through the gloom the sweet words come,
Not dead, just gone before
And though the years be many or few,
They will always be filled with memories of you.
— We'll always remember, Norm and Glad Prest.
