ASHGROVE

Allan Neelon Speaker Young People's Service

The Young People conducted a very fine service on Sunday evening in the church with president, Fred Barnes presiding.

Nothing is static, and the future will bring other changes. Retail business, like everything else, adapts itself to changing conditions.

Monday closing has not been accepted by an important segment of the merchant population and one finds a double standard at present.

It is all a sign of changing times in business where the labour situation has been hard hit by general adoption of a 5 day week in industry.

Changing Pattern of Business

Following Georgetown's lead, a number of Brampton stores have announced their intention of closing on Mondays and dropping the former half-holiday.

It is the second time in recent years that Georgetown has set a pattern which has become accepted practice in neighbouring towns.

While it is still too early to say that the Monday closing will become general, indications are that locally, at least, the experiment has met with some success.

Entertainment Worth Seeing

Locally and in Toronto, there are many entertainment features at present which provide good family entertainment.

At the Roxy Theatre all this week, hypnotist Dr. Edwin Heath is making showgoers chuckle as he put a group of subjects through their paces.

Wonderful Boon for Georgetown

Successful promotion of the community swimming pool is a red letter mark for Georgetown Lions Club.

On Monday, Red Cross swimming tests were conducted, and a number of young people will receive certificates indicating their competence in life saving.

of the United Church in Norval. They came from the Laurel district to Norval where they lived for approximately nine years.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Dunlop is survived by Helen and John, their children, of Burlington, a sister Belva Hill and is predeceased by two brothers Leonard and Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn motored up to Haliburton on Sunday, returning on Monday and leaving daughter Marilyn for a week's holidays with friends at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drake and Joey and her sister, Mrs. Nethercutt enjoyed a week's holidays up north.

Miss Barbara Cunningham has returned from a fifty three day bus tour sponsored by the Ontario branch of the Alberta Recreational Society.

They travelled through Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, and Wyoming, crossing border from Montana, also saw Calgary, Stampede, Vancouver, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Salt Lake City.
