SILVER-WOOD

Hudson's Bay Factor Visitor From N.W.T.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ford of Chesterfield Inlet, N.W.T. and Miss Marjorie Ford who attends Balmoral Hall School at Winnipeg, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marchington. Mrs. Ford, who is Mr. Marchington's sister, says they have been having winter conditions there all summer, the ice finally blowing out from shore long enough on July 22nd to allow a plane to land, bringing an injured man to the hospital there from Rankin Inlet, 80 miles to the south. The Fords came out by the same plane, with twenty minutes warning, but were held two days at Rankin due to fog conditions and another two or three days at Churchill with all outgoing planes filled up. They finally reached Winnipeg by train eight days after leaving home. They reported a snow storm on June 20th that left their house covered with snow for two days. Mr. Ford is the Hudson's Bay factor at Chesterfield.

Following the christening of Sherry Lorraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller at St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, guests entertained at the home were Mrs. Miller's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Domm, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Domm, of Durham, Miss Gertrude Domm, of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ortleib and family of Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davidson who were the godparents and Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Miller.

Congratulations to Mrs. Erna Batkin who took first prize at the CNE for women place mats, and third prize for a sampler of inlay work. And to Mrs. Rudy Corbett who took third prize in the place mats class.
