FARM NEWS
J. H. Willmott & Sons
Sheep Winners in CNE Hampshire Classes

J. E. W.
In the strong Hampshire show at the C.N.E. the entries of J. H. Willmott & Son of Milton were prominent throughout. A few of their top awards included the following: 1st and 4th on ram lambs; 1st, 3rd and 7th on ewe lambs; 1st on pen of lambs; 2nd and 3rd on yearling rams; 2nd on flock and 2nd on get-of-sire group. By the way, the genial Joe and Johnnie also had the reserve female championship on their winning ewe lamb.

Strong Beef Show
By the time this appears in print the various breeds of beef and dual purpose cattle will have held their respective shows. Following the conclusion of the dairy shows on Friday, we took a stroll around the cattle, sheep, swine and horse barns and judging by what we saw, the little suburban county of Halton will really be on the map by the end of the current week.

In Short horns there were entries from such noted herds as T. C. Amos, Grant and Scott Campbell and W. H. Black and Son, all of Moffat; S. G. Bennett of Georgetown, Reford and Carolyn Gardhouse, H. Hendershott and W. H. and Bob Merry, all of Milton area. In the Angus section we saw a nice lineup from the herd of J. H. Willmott and Son of Milton. Then we saw a long lineup of entries of Red Polls from the herds of Leonard W. Coulson, A. R. Coulter and Geo. E. Readhead, all of Milton. From there, we took a quick peek around the swine barn and there we saw some nice entries from the Tamworth herd of T. J. Brownridge and Son of Georgetown. Finally, out in the Horse Palace, were some of those outstanding Percherons of Stan May of Hornby.

If time had permitted we no doubt would have found equally outstanding entries from Halton in other sections of that great show. So, don't let anyone kid you—Halton may be small and she may have lost quite a few farms in the past two or three years, but the little old county is still in the farming business in a big way and likely to remain so for some years to come.
