M.P.'s Son and Bride are New Georgetown Residents

A couple who will live at 21 Water St., Apt. 6, Georgetown, were married on October 12th in Acton United Church. Wedding principals were Ruby Marguerite Ford and William George Howe. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret S. Ford, Acton, formerly of Arthur and the bridegroom is the eldest son of W. Marvin Howe, M.P. and Mrs. Howe of Arthur.

The 3.30 o'clock double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Adams, minister of the United Church, with a setting of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows, centred with white carnations and sprigs of evergreen.

Mr. George Elliott Acton, was organist and played sacred music while the guests were assembling and throughout the ceremony. Mr. Peter Howe, a student at Queen's University, Kingston, brother of the bridegroom, was soloist and sang The Lord's Prayer before the ceremony and because during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Peter Brisson, Cobalt, the bride was regally lovely in a candle white peare-de-faille floor length gown. Her slender bodice had inverted scoop neckline with lily-point sleeves, trimmed in embroidered lace with seed pearls. There were shirred-puffs at the bustle back sweeping into a semi-chapel train. Her ensemble was complemented with a seed pearl and lace tiara which caught a silk illusion hand rolled fingertip veil. She carried a white Bible with orchid and white satin streamers with Stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Elliott of Kenilworth was maid of honor, and Miss Mary Ellen Howe, Arthur, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in waltz length gowns of forest green velvet in princess style with matching headress and shoes, and carried cascades of bronze baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Gail Ross of Acton was flower girl in a street length dress of honey-dew velvet with matching bandeau, and she carried a basket of yellow baby chrysanthemums.

Mr. Harold C. Bales, 225 Queen St., Stratford, was best man. The ushers were Mr. William Blair, Elmira, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mr. Garth Jackson of Arthur. A reception and wedding dinner was held at 4.30 p.m. for 60 guests in the church banquet hall. The bride's table was centred with a three tiered wedding cake, decorated in white and topped with a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. It was flanked by white candelabra and pink and white dahlias.

The bride's mother received the guests in a gown of Dior blue crystal charm, princess lines, but ten trim, bouffant skirt and pert wing collar, velvet picture hat, black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

She was assisted by the bridegroom's mother, who wore a sheath of rosewood peau de soie. Cunningly laced from the satin boat neckline were fly-away streamers. She wore green and bronze accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

For a wedding trip en route to attend the opening of Parliament and continued through the Laurentians, the bride wore a fitted polished black suit trimmed with oriental white mink collar, the jacket subtly panelled in back, and a tily cape with saucy bows. She wore a black velvet hat with white egret trim and matching black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Meaford, Elmira, Toronto, Berkley Heights, New Jersey, Toledo, Ohio, Hamilton, Stratford, Arthur, Mitchell, Palmerston, Aurora, Cobalt, Kenilworth and Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

Among the beautiful gifts received by the happy couple was a piece of china from the Arthur United Church choir, and a gift of crystal from the Acton United Church choir. Both the bride and the bridegroom have been valued members of both choirs.

Emmanuel Professor is W. A. Rally Speaker

Professor George Johnson of Emmanuel College, Toronto was chief speaker at the fall rally of Halton Presbytery of the United Church W.A. which was held Thursday at Ballinafad.

Professor Johnson spoke on the theme for the day "The Glory of the Church", stressing that there should be one mystical divine society "One Lord, One Love, One Holy Bible." and one church of God for all.

The presbytery president, Mrs. Byron Fluet, Cooksville, opened the morning session with a poem and prayer. Mrs. G. Adams and Mrs. Amos Shoemaker, Acton led in the worship service. A panel discussion and question period was led by Mrs. Kinsman of Stoney Creek who is past president of Hamilton Conference.

The Ballinafad ladies served a bountiful noon lunch, during which Mrs. Arthur Harris of Nelson, president of Halton Presbytery WMS brought greetings, as did Mrs. Kinsman from Hamilton Conference.

Mrs. Mac Martin, Zimmerman, opened the afternoon session with a short worship service. Mrs. K. G. Partridge, Port Credit, sang a solo "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings."

ERINDALE RECTOR IS HARVEST HOME PREACHER

The Harvest service in St. Stephen's Anglican Church was well attended on Sunday, Oct. 20th. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, grain, fruit and vegetables. The Rev. J. E. Maxwell was the preacher for the morning service and the Reverend Canon G. F. Banks of Erindale for the evening service.

Mrs. Ted Robinson returned home last Thursday, October 17, after a two months' visit to her home in Scotland.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson who were married last Saturday, October 19th.

Little David Robertson is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson and his brother Jimmie is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, while their mother is in Guelph General Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Maxwell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Klaus Stever were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley on Sunday.

Nearly half the pupils of the Hornby public school were absent this week with the flu. Mrs. Jim Ingram has been sick with pneumonia and Alan Aselton is in the Oakville hospital with pneumonia.

A good time was had by all that attended the Little Helpers party at St. Stephen's Parish Hall on Saturday, Oct. 19th. Miss Eileen Bradley was the winner of first
