T. McColgan Movie Camera
Winner, Holy Cross Bazaar.

A bazaar and Fun Fair, jointly sponsored by the Catholic Women's League and the Holy Name Society of Holy Cross R.C. Church was a successful event on Friday in the Odd Fellows Hall.

The event, officially opened by Fr. Thomas Van Laer in the afternoon was well patronized, including afternoon tea, a hot supper and games and bingo in the evening. Fr. V. J. Morgan, Acton, former pastor of the parish, was a visitor during the day.

A highlight of the bazaar was the drawing for a movie camera and projector, which was won by T. McColgan, 4 Bard Lane, Mrs. Walter Macdy, 45 McIntyre Crescent, won a rotisserie and Michael Mastertman, 63 Charles Street, a doll.

Mrs. R. C. McDermott and Mrs. Florence Curtis were general conveners for the bazaar and Ron Hunt who is president of the Holy Name Society is in charge of the Fun Fair. Conveners of the various bazaar booths included: baking, Mrs. Bernard Armstrong, Mrs. Anthony Hurley; touch and take, Mrs. Geo. Hewson; parcel post, Mrs. Fred Peters; penny sale, Mrs. Ronald Hulme, Mrs. Gerard Wilcox; needlework, Mrs. Fred Masterman, Miss Therese St. Jean; Dutch booth, Mrs. Peter Drenters, Mrs. J. P. Bus; white elephant, Mrs. Ron Flunt, Mrs. R. Perrigo; aprons, Mrs. Fred Tucker, Mrs. Sid Hulme, Mrs. John Koleski; fish pond, Mrs. Jim Yates; the afternoon tea was convened by Mrs. Doug Sargent and the supper by Mrs. Jim Boyle.

The men of the church operated the Fun Fair in the evening. R. C. McDermott and Gerard Wilcox supervised the games and the bingo was conducted by Fred Tucker, Sid Hulme and James Boyle. Gerry Van Klink was in charge of soft drinks, and the boys from Notre Dame de Beauregard Farm assisted in the fish pond and gave their services in various capacities, greatly assisting the committees, whose ranks had been thinned by the flu epidemic.

There were a number of smaller lucky draws at the various booths. Winners included: shopping bag, Mrs. Ron Hunt; crocheted dollies, Mrs. J. Milton, Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. James Egerlon; tin of cookies, Earl Wilcox; boudoir chair, Edgar Beeny; Dutch lamp, Betty Anne Hulme; easel tray, Mrs. Tom Peavy; knitted dog, Mrs. R. C. McDermott; picture, painted by Lady Edith Windle, Mrs. Gerard Wilcox.

Ken Nash, Jack Kerby
Chief Prizewinners
In Golf Year

The North Halton Golf and Country Club trophy, symbolic of the club championship, officially went to Ken Nash, on Saturday, October 19th, men's closing field day. As well as the closing day competitions, club members took part in dart games, viewed a film and at 7 sat down to the closing dinner. There was also a lucky draw.

All of the runners up were presented with cuff links for their showing. Dr. Jack Kerby was right behind Nash in the "A" flight, and the "B" flight champion Jim Evans, who received the John R. Barber trophy was followed in that division by Walter Brandford. Bill Clark took "C" flight ahead of Leigh Bradbury and the consolation round for the Bank of Commerce trophy was copped by Don Rand. The runner up in that class was Wellington "Duke" Wilson.

Bud Binkley was runner up in the handicap round to Ted Fenning while Harv Chappel copped the prize for ringer score.

On the day's play Harv Chappel won first low net in Group No. 1, the 414 handicap class, Jack Kerby was 2nd low net and Jim Linton, low gross. In group 2, 15 to 22, Gord King was 1st low net, Scotly Patterson second low net and Jack Hamilton and Norm Marchment 1st and 2nd low gross respectively.

Golfers with a handicap between 23 and 28 competed in group No. 3. Here Dave Godden took the honors for first low net, Ted Fenning second low net and Leigh Bradbury first low gross. The prize for hidden score went to Bill Latimer.

Bill Hamilton was first low net in Group No. 4, 29-36, which held the most awards. Joe Dwyer, Jr. was 2nd low net, Cec Dobbie, Milton, 3rd low net and Murt Allison 4th low net. Matt Todd was 1st low gross and two hidden score prizes went to Jack Gunning and Dr. J. H. Chamberlain, Matt Todd, also won trophy for the day for low net.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH CLUB

Hobgoblins, spooks and witches were rampant last Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Blair Armstrong, 18 Hewson Crescent, entertained the 50-50 Club of St. John's United Church at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Harv Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde were hosts with them for the evening.

The masquerade party was a huge success with a wonderful turn out and everyone in a gala mood. Mrs. Reg Broomhead won first prize for the lady's best costume dressed most appropriately as Miss "Asian Flu" and Harv Lee the best for the men as a Girl Scout.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Frouse and Mr. and Mrs. Chester DeForest won prizes for best dances and Al Zeravlev won the prize for shuffle board. All the guests brought a box lunch and the hosts supplied the tea and coffee. Everyone disappeared home wishing the hobgoblins came out more than once a year.

FARM NEWS CROP PROSPECTS FOR ALFALFA, RED CLOVER

J. E. W.

Alfalfa — While production of alfalfa seed in 1957 may be 50 per cent larger than in 1956, it will be nevertheless, one of the smallest crops on record. This is the statement of the Plant Products Division of Agriculture. Alfalfa seed sowing in Ontario was generally poor and the crop will be very small for the second successive year. True, some of the Western provinces have or had prospects of increased yields but there is some uncertainty, due to a heavy snowfall in the Peace River District. We also note that the forecast in the U.S. calls for a 7 per cent decrease. Nevertheless
