Describes European Trip
Shows Pictures to BPWs

The Jack O'Lantern was the meeting place for the Business and Professional Women's Club when they celebrated their second birthday as an organized club. The table was centred with a beautiful birthday cake with two candles, Marion Robinson, immediate past president had the honour of cutting the cake.

Mrs. Arthur Suddaby, presided at the meeting; reports were heard from various committees, unfinished business and new business dealt with. Mrs. Win Wallace, delegate to the provincial conference in Ottawa gave a very brief report on the Conference. The next meeting is going to be given over to the giving and studying of this very important report which deals with a great deal of legislation.

Miss Jean Raddell delighted and entertained everyone with coloured slides of her recent trip to Europe. She showed pictures of London, Paris, Metz, Switzerland, Luxembourg, and other points of interest. Four guests were introduced at dinner, Miss Florence Luke, Miss Betty Phelan, Miss Shirley Brennan and Mrs. Jean Rundle. The members recited the club pledge in view of the fact that it was the second birthday of the club, prior to the closing benediction.

The Georgetown Red Cross will hold a blood donors clinic on December 12th, in Knox Presbyterian Hall. You can help in this great work by giving. Remember the date Thursday, December 12th.

Baptist Sunshine Club
Entertain Halton Manor

An entertaining program that was very appropriate to the name of the organization that gave it was presented for the residents of the Manor on Tuesday evening, October 15, by about 12 members of the Sunshine Club of the First Baptist Church, Georgetown. They were accompanied by their minister, Rev. Alfred Barker and their president, Mrs. O. Mulder, whose talent as a pianist has been much admired at the Manor on previous occasions. The program with two very fine piano solos, The Lost Chord and variations on the hymn Abide With Me.

Mr. Barker showed a great number of attractive slides. These slides had been taken while he was "down East" in the summer of 1956. After showing scenes in Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec. Mr. Barker took us by the magic of his pictures to the lovely Evangeline country and Annapolis Valley in Nova Scotia and thence south to Boston and the little fishing villages of the New England coast. Mr. Barker commented briefly on each slide.

After the pictures, the words of two hymns were thrown on the screens and these were sung by the visitors and residents in unison.

Mrs. Donald Hancock, whose lovely voice always adds so much to these concerts, sang two sacred numbers, Jesus Leads and Love, Everlasting Love. She was followed by Mrs. Earl Clements, who read the 23rd Psalm and a commentary upon it with sincere and reverent expression.

A closing hymn and a prayer by the president, Miss Norma Thompson brought the program to a close. Speeches of thanks by Mrs. Stanley Allen and Muriel Thompson expressed appreciation of the residents to the members of the club, appropriately named the Sunshine Club.

Mrs. Leonard Ward is McNally Trophy Winner

Mrs. Leonard Ward was top golfer among ladies of North Halton Golf Club this year and received the McNally trophy when the ladies held their closing day last Tuesday. Mrs. John Bell was runner-up for the championship. Fifty-six ladies attended the dinner and presentation of prizes. A movie of the Canadian Open was shown. The presentations were in charge of the captain, Mrs. Ward, assisted by the vice-captain Mrs. James F. Evans.

Awards included: A Flight consolation, Jean Mackenzie, Margery Mackenzie; B Flight (Shankland trophy) Mrs. Ron Kitchen, Mrs. E. W. Binkley; C Flight consolation, Mrs. Joe Dwyer, Jr., Mrs. C. V. Williams; D Flight (Mackenzie trophy) Mrs. Stan Wade, Mrs. Jack Gunning; E Flight consolation, Mrs. Ted Darlington, Mrs. Robert Wicks.

The Barclay trophy for handicap competition was won by Mrs. Ward with Mrs. Norman Marchment runner-up.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Marchment tied for lowest ringer score in A Flight, followed by Mrs. Ward and Mrs. J. H. Chamberlain. In B Flight, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. Graham Farnell and Mrs. Don Rand got awards, and in C Flight, Mrs. Lloyd Marks, Mrs. Frank Wallace and Mrs. Ken Nash.

Awards were also presented in the C.L.G.U. spoon competitions at the dinner. In the afternoon players, Mrs. Ward was winner in June and August and Margery Mackenzie in July. Miss Mackenzie had the four lowest aggregate scores. In the evening players, Jean Mackenzie won in June, and Helen McGill in July and August. Miss McGill also having four lowest aggregate scores.

Prizes for the greatest reduction in handicap during the season went to Mrs. Marchment, Mrs. Stewart Young and Margery Mackenzie.

THREE LOCAL MEN HAVE SUCCESSFUL HUNTING TRIP

Three local men had the thrill of a successful moose hunt when they spent a week hunting recently in the Iroquois Falls district. Walt Richardson, Herb Rothler and Steve Larsen travelled north for the shoot, completing their trip in from Iroquois Falls by plane. Guide Martin Wolfe and his father were the lucky hunters, bagging a 1200-lb. cow moose and a 600 lb. calf, which will be gracing the dinner tables of the local hunters.

Regimental Parade
Lorne Scots at Knox Presbyterian

Members of the Lorne Scots Regiment from Brampton, Orangeville, Milton and Acton joined the local C Company Sunday in a church parade here. With Lt.-Col. Sam Charters attending a civil defence scheme that day in Haileybury, the regiment was commanded by Major Ted Conover, who also read the lesson at the service. The service was held in Knox Presbyterian Church and was conducted by the minister, Rev. Alex Calder, who is also regimental padre. Rev. D. J. Woeller, Orangeville, assistant padre of the Lorne Scots, also took part in the service.

The regiment, in their colourful new kilie dress uniforms paraded from the park, led by the regimental pipe band along Main Street and to the cenotaph where a wreath was placed. Lt.-Col. John R. Barber, former commanding officer, took the salute in front of the public library. Also on the reviewing stand were Mayor Jack Armstrong, Sandy Best, MP, and Stan Hall, MPP.

Officers, their wives and families and visitors were entertained at a coffee party afterwards by Colonel Barber at North Halton Golf and Country Club.

KNOW
YOU

Modern science has brought the homemaker's job out of the dark ages of drudgery that our Grandmother knew by providing today's homemaker with a wide variety of new labor-saving equipment — modern washing machines, dryers, ironers, dishwashers and all sorts of new soaps and detergents designed to make her work easier.

Millions of homes are equipped with such conveniences as these: yet millions of women still struggle with water that is the equivalent of the old-fashioned washboard.

You wouldn't put up with an old fashioned washboard in the laundry — you wouldn't tolerate an old-fashioned eye soap — so why use old-fashioned water?

But what is "old fashioned" water? It's simply hard water — water which hasn't been conditioned to make it as efficient as it could be. Hard water is just as inconvenient, just as time-consuming, and just as old-fashioned — as the washboard.
